

Miss Joanne Kay Pebbles
Weds William A. Grasmick

Repeating wedding vows in the First Methodist Church in Ontario on Sunday, June 11, 1972 were Joanne Kay Pebbles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pebbles of Ontario, and William A. Grasmick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grasmick of Route 2, Parma.

Officiating at the 8 p.m. double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Bob Wallace. The altar was graced with candelabras amid white gladioli, blue delphinium and white daisies. Soloist was Gen Murray accompanied by Gary Lacey.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of satin peau de soie with a high neckline, long puffed sleeves and the skirt flowed gracefully to a full Chapel train in back. Both the gown and train were accented with elegant seed pearl appliques. Her elbow length veil was caught to a satin pill box. She carried a cascading bouquet of white roses, blue delphinium and carnations.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Kim (Cheryl) Shero, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were the Misses Connie Wallingford, Nancy Zupan and Marcy Morinaga. Their gowns were blue daisy-flocked nylon over blue satin. All bridal attendants carried bouquets of white daisies and blue carnations.

Richard Grasmick was best man for his brother. Ushering the 150 guests were Tom Hislop, Reggie Grasmick and Jerry Coleman.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Pebbles wore a blue sleeveless dress and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige dress with long sleeves and her corsage was of blue carnations.
