The Old Soldier

He's a proud old soldier. Veteran of Chateau-Thierry, of Meuse and Argonne. To some he seems a pitiable anachronism in this day of disenchantment, dissent, and protest against the establishment.

But the old uniform stands for something that he once, long ago, laid his life on the line to defend.

HONOR. FLAG. HOME. COUNTRY. FREEDOM.

To these values and their preservation his forefathers had pledged "lives, fortunes, and sacred honor."

He made their commitment his own. When his country called, he went. There are some who would say he went needlessly, as a naive tool of the munitions makers, an innocent dupe of patriotic publicity.

Well, try telling him that!

No, he didn't make the world safe for democracy. But he bought a few years free from tyranny. He stood in the line of men who from time immemorial have counted some values dearer than life itself.

There are yet such men. For every alienated dropout thousands share the old soldier's age-old commitment to the God who created them, and to the freedom that is the heritage of His children.

A strong and free society can withstand almost any assault from without. It can withstand—even be improved by—vigorous dissent and debate from within.

What it cannot survive is the apathy and uninvolvedness of its citizens.

He's not fighting anymore, that old veteran. But he still votes. And he knows why he votes as he does. And you'll find him in church every week, taking, as he tells it, "a refresher course in values." When he says, "You can count on me," you can count on it!

His uniform is mended now and the medals are tarnished. But his moral fiber has endured unrotted and his honor unstained.

In fact, you might call him and the flag he flies on every holiday two old veterans.

RED, WHITE, AND TRUE BLUE!

Former AFS Student Visits

Lutz Kliche, foreign exchange student from Germany, who attended Nyssa High School in 1969-70, is a Nyssa visitor for two weeks. He lived with the Roy Hirai family during his year in Nyssa, and is again visiting with the Hirais.

Lutz is traveling with Hans Mayer, both students at the University of Freiburg in the Black Forest of Germany. They are on a two and one half month trip, visiting many parts of the United States.

The boys flew from Frankfurt, Germany to New York City where they stayed one week, then hitch-hiked to Booth Bay Harbor, Maine and visited there. They hitched to Detroit, Michigan, and after a few days took the ferry across Lake Michigan to Madison, Wisconsin and from there went to Minneapolis, Minnesota.

They drove with a woman and two children to San Francisco and spent a week in the bay area. Then they drove a car for the Drive-Way Company to Salt Lake City, and drove another car from there to Portland. Lutz got off at Nyssa, Hans drove on to Portland, and will return to Nyssa by bus.

From Nyssa the two boys will travel to Vancouver, B.C. to visit Lutz' uncle, and will return to Germany by October 1 in time to start back to school. Lutz is taking Sociology, Politics, Literature and Journalism at Freiburg. He says it is great to be back in Nyssa, and feels like this is his second home.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH NOTES THIS I BELIEVE

by Rev. Bob Hutchinson
 I believe in the Word of God. To the Roman world of St. Paul's day, to the intellectual, to the educated man preaching that a book out of Jewish culture was the true gospel and the God of the Jews was the one true God and that a Jew in Jerusalem who was crucified would save mankind and transform the world was to them foolishness, nonsense and unworthy of audience.

But they aren't alone, for many today and even some who wear the "cloth" say the Bible can no longer be believed, that it is not infallible but contains errors and is not necessarily the Word of God. But I along with many millions of others believe the Bible is the inspired Word of God and is the only infallible and authoritative source of divine truth.

Abraham Lincoln said, "I believe the Bible is the best gift God has ever given to man." W. E. Gladstone said, "I have known ninety-five of the world's great men in my time and eighty-seven of them were followers of the Bible."

It is small wonder that the Bible has always been the world's best seller. No other book can touch its profound wisdom, its poetic beauty, or the accuracy of its history and prophecy. Its critics, who claimed it to be filled with forged, fiction, and unfilled promises are finding the difficulties lie with themselves, and not the Bible. Greater and more careful scholarship has shown that the apparent contradictions were caused by incorrect translations rather than divine inconsistencies. It was man and not the Bible that needed correcting.

I feel about the Bible as a freshman student at Oregon College of Education felt when I was attending there. During a class in history a teacher with the intent of ridiculing the Bible said, "Is there anyone here who still believes in the Bible?" The whole class was silent for a moment and then this one student stood up and said, "Yes I believe in the Bible, I believe it is inspired, I believe it is inspired from cover to cover and I believe the cover is inspired, too." This I believe, I believe in the Word of God.

Building in the City of Nyssa

NEW NAZARENE FELLOWSHIP HALL is starting to take shape as Devere Nelson, foreground, lays concrete blocks around the tudor type laminated arches raised last Saturday under the direction of Bill Fitzsimmons, and with the aid of equipment loaned by the Nyssa Co-op Supply. Volunteer labor is being used wherever possible under the direction of Pastor Robert Manley and a building committee.

The building will provide facilities for fellowship dinners, recreation activities for children, youth and adults, and other meeting areas, as well as a kitchen.

OUT OF THE PAST

10 YEARS AGO

On August 20 Nyssa was designated a terminal point for the Union Pacific Railroad. Since that time five trains are leaving the local yards daily, six days a week, serving towns in all directions.

They travel approximately 300 miles (one way) and return after having made runs covering an area from Marsing, New Plymouth, Weiser and Burns. Each train carries a five-man crew, adding 25 employees working out of local yards.

Operating the trains out of Nyssa as a terminal point has proven successful financially for UP and has resulted in work starting on installation of additional tracks, a diesel engine storage tank, sand dryers and locating storage and personnel buildings here.

This information was furnished The Journal by Freight Agent Tom Jones, who said he did not have complete details on all the plans at this time.

First place and overall winners

Largest permit issued for August was for the new telephone building at the corner of Bower and Second Street for $21,000. The building is to be concrete block construction.

It appeared Wednesday that Nyssa and the county might soon be declared by health officials to be free of the polio epidemic stage with no new cases being reported.

Dr. L.A. Maulding, county health doctor, warned however, that now is no time to relax vigilance against the dread disease. He stated there must be a period of six weeks elapsing without the reporting of a new case before the epidemic can safely be declared ended.
