Clothing Needed For Youngsters

Clothing for children is badly needed in the area served by the Human Resources Center in Nyssa. The center is attempting to accumulate a 'clothes closet' to serve children of families receiving help there. According to a center official, the clothing needed takes in the age group from newborn babies to high school. The baby items are very badly needed as is bedding. Persons wishing to donate wearable items including clothing suitable for school should leave it at the center, North 2nd and Ehrgood (old American Legion building) or they may telephone the center at 372-3831.
