

The Old Timer

"The best kind of blind faith is blind to other's faults."

EDUCATION . . . from Funny Funnies World

AUSTIN, TEXAS. University of Texas officials estimate that six out of every ten students find it necessary to get part-time jobs to make it through the school. (And the other four have to work even harder getting it from Dad.)

THERE WAS A discussion at a convention of professors as to what exactly Shakespeare's background was. An Englishman insisted he was a Celt. The Germans thought he was originally German. But all of them agreed he couldn't have been Jewish. Because to a Jew, "To be or not to be," is an answer.

IT WAS A bright spring morn-

ning, and the four high school boys decided to skip classes. Arriving after lunch, they explained to the teacher that their car had a flat tire on the way to school. To their relief, the teacher smiled understandingly and said, "You boys missed a test this morning. Please take your seats apart from one another and get out your paper and pencil." When the boys were seated, she continued, "Answer this question. Which tire was flat?" (Rotary Bulletin, Indianapolis, Ind.)

IN A SCHOOL essay on parents a small girl wrote, "We get our parents when they are so old, it is very hard to change their habits."

SMALL BOY to teacher: "I can't get that report card back to you. You gave me an 'A' in something, and they're still mailing it to relatives."

PARENTS registering their children for the Fall term at a Detroit kindergarten were asked pertinent questions about their children's background. In the blank marked "Language spoken in the home," one mother proudly wrote, "Nice."

William Driver first named the flag of the United States Old Glory as it was hoisted to the masthead of his brig in the 1800's.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

When You Go Dancing

Whenever business was good at a suburban night club, the management would "stretch" their space by putting extra tables and chairs on the edge of the dance floor. One night, a dancing couple stumbled over a stray chair.

The woman suffered painful injuries, and later sued the club for damages. She pointed out that the chair had been shoved several feet into the dancing area.

"If it was," countered the management, "some other customer must have done the shoving. We are not legally liable for what our customers do."

But the court granted the woman's claim. The court said that by placing chairs directly onto the dance floor, the management had set the stage for trouble.

When you go dancing in a public place, you are entitled to conditions of reasonable safety. The dance floor, the lighting, and the furnishings should all be maintained in such a way as to minimize the chance of accidents.

Nevertheless, merely by choosing this form of recreation, you are accepting those dangers that are "natural" to it. For example:

Another woman, injured while dancing, claimed she lost her footing because the floor was slick. But the court found no reason to blame the management for this. As one judge put it:

"Dance floors are intended to be slippery."

Furthermore, your own behavior might amount to negligence. That was the court's ruling in a case in which the claimant had ventured onto a ballroom floor in a state of advanced intoxication. And in another case, the court declared it was negligence for a woman to try a particularly tricky step while wearing heels three-and-a-half inches high.

"The situation," said the judge, "parallels that of the risk taken by a participant in a sport."

The face-slapping contest duration record was set in Kiev, U.S.S.R., in 1931, when a draw was declared between Vasily Bezborodny and Goniuch after 30 hours.

The world's first international cricket match was won by America.

The most gigantic ice cream sundae made was one comprising 600 pounds of ice cream dripping with 34 quarts of chocolate sauce, topped out with 153 ounces of chopped nuts, valued at $720.
