Personality Quiz!

HOW THOUGHTFUL ARE YOU?

Do you consider yourself unselfish, understanding and kind? If so, take the following test and find out how thoughtful you really are.

1. When you and your wife go to a party, do you (A) stay with her all evening, (B) see that she is occupied with others if you are talking with someone else, (C) leave her by herself all evening?

For correct answers, turn the page. If you score four or more answers correctly, consider yourself a thoughtful person.

2. If you are a weekend guest, do you (A) insist on helping your host or hostess with the chores, (B) ask your hostess if you may be of assistance if it appears she could use help, (C) volunteer to do nothing unless asked?

3. If the parent of a close friend dies, but you did not know the parent, do you (A) send flowers to the funeral, or home of the friend, (B) send condolences to the friend via a card or phone call, (C) make a point of attending the funeral?

4. If you are invited to a home for dinner, do you (A) send your hostess a thank-you note the next day, (B) phone her the next day and thank her for an enjoyable evening, (C) thank your hostess at the end of the evening and let it go at that?

BOOKS . . . . . from Funny World
THE GOOD NEWS—BAD NEWS (Price/Stern/Sloan) $1.00. "I've got some Good News . . . and I've got some Bad News . . . First the Good News: Your wife is getting married again and you no longer have to send her alimony. Now, for the Bad News: She's marrying your boss and you're fired."
 "(Art Expert to Collector) Bad News: I regret to tell you that your Van Gogh was not painted by Van Gogh. Now, for the Good News: It was painted by Picasso."
 "(Airline Pilot to Passenger) Bad News: We have a hijacker aboard the plane. Good News: He wants to go to the French Riviera."
 "(South American Dictator to his People) Bad News: The crops have failed and we have nothing to eat but lizards. Now, for the Good News: There aren't enough to go around."
 "(Thomas Alva Edison to Mrs. Edison) Good News: I've just invented the light bulb. Bad News: I can't get it to ring."
 "(Surgeon to Patient) Bad News: We removed the wrong kidney. Good News: The other kidney is coming along fine."
 "The orange tree is a member of the evergreen family."
 CRIME . . . . . from Funny World
 BIRCHWOOD, Wisconsin: Intruders used buckets of water to rob the Citizen State Bank. The intruders had dismantled the burglar alarm, cut telephone lines, entered the vault and cut a 6 by 12 inch hole in the top of a small safe. Then they carried water in buckets from the bank's basement and dumped it in the opening. Bundled dollar bills floated to the top and were skimmed off, authorities said. (That's one way to float a loan.)
 "HEY, DON'T make so much noise," said John Cronin to a burglar who broke into his house in Watertown, Mass. "I've got sinus trouble." "Well," said the burglar, "what you need is a good massage. Look." And with that he rolled up his sleeves and massaged Cronin's head. Mr. Cronin felt so much better that he told the burglar where to find a few dollars.
 BENDIGO Training Prison in Melbourne, Australia, the game was called. The two referees, both inmates, jumped over the fence of the local sports stadium and fled up the street. (San Francisco Chronicle)
