Myron McCrady Home on Leave

Home on leave upon completion of basic training is Myron L. McCrady, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McCrady of Nyssa.

Myron graduated September 28 from Marine Corp Recruit Depot, San Diego, California. Among a graduating class of 250 recruits, he attained Series Honorman, Platoon Honorman, and High Expert Marksman. For accomplishing these goals, he was awarded the rank of Private First Class, a Gold Watch, Marine Dress Blues, and above all, the honor of bearing the American Colors during the companies "pass and review" ceremonies at graduation.

Attending graduation was Myron's brother, Francis McCrady and family, presently residing in Costa Mesa, California.

Myron was greeted at the Boise airport by his wife Leila, son Ryan, and their six-week-old daughter Heidi. Upon completion of twelve day leave, Pfc. McCrady will report to his next duty station at Twentynine Palms, California where he will be trained in electronics.
