

Huckleberry, Daisies Decorate Church at Fangen-Hansen Wedding

Debra Jean Fangen became the bride of William J. (Guy) Hansen in a double-ring ceremony September 23, 1972 at St. Bridget's Catholic Church in Nyssa. The ceremony was solemnized in the presence of 100 guests by the Rev. Robert Simard.

The altar was decorated with large brass candelabras and blue tapers amid a garland of huckleberry and white daisies. Organ solo "The Lord's Prayer" was played by Barbara Fangen, sister of the bride.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Fangen of Nyssa, and Mr. and Mrs. William Hansen of Port Orchard, Washington.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a princess style gown of heavy satin, fashioned with a high collar and full sheer sleeves. The gown featured a lace trimmed front and the skirt was gathered at the center back falling into a full chapel train. The gown and bridesmaid's dresses were made by Debra's grandmother, Rose Toombs. Her waist length veil was designed and made by her mother. She carried a cascade design of white roses, blue carnations and babies breath.

Christine Norman was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Janet and Janis Takami and Sandy Fangen, sister of the bride. All were attired in street-length dresses of pale aqua polyester, featuring bell sleeves and dark blue cummerbunds. Each wore matching large brim hats featuring cymbidium orchids and daisies to trim the back. They also carried cascade designs of white daisies and white velvet streamers.

Flower girl was Cherie Toombs, cousin of the bride. Her gown was fashioned identical to that of the other attendants, she carried a basket of aqua rose petals. Rox Ann and Troy Toombs carried the rice andooms cake, both are cousins of the bride.

John Gilmore was bestman, Monty Freel, Ken Wright and Kevin Moffis were the groomsmen. Eddie Golnik, nephew of the groom was ring bearer. Ushers were Bill and Mike Toombs, cousins of the bride, and Dan Hopkins.

Following the wedding a reception followed in the social hall.

The cake was topped with white satin bells and the tiers were decorated with white daisies and blue babies breath. Cutting and serving the cake were Barbara Fangen, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Eugene Claude, aunt of the bride.

Mrs. Paul Golnik, sister of the groom, served the punch and Kathy Toombs, cousin of the bride poured coffee. Others assisting with the serving were Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mrs. Don Oldemeyer, Mrs. Arthur Cartwright and Miriam Kunkel.

Penny Hopkins attended the guest book, registering gifts was Lee Claude, cousin of the bride, assisting with the gift table were, Cindy and Kathy Claude, and Brenda Moffis.

For their trip the bride wore a dress designed and made by her grandmother, of aqua polyester. After a honeymoon trip to Washington the newlyweds are now at their home southwest of Nyssa near Mitchell Butte.

The new Mrs. Hansen is a 1971 graduate of Nyssa High School. She is presently employed at the F & F Sports Center in Ontario.

"Guy" a 1965 graduate of South Kitsap High School, Port Orchard, Washington, served four years in the United States Navy and is now employed at The Merc Department Store in Ontario.

Included in the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Mabel Rohor, grandmother of the groom and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Golnik and family, sister of the groom, all of Port Orchard, Washington; Mrs. Jean Hansen, aunt of the groom, Salt Lake City, Utah; Mrs. Eugene Claude and girls, aunt of the bride, Mountain Home, Idaho and Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Bridges, Boise.

Vikki Shenk-Joel Price Exchange Vows, Honeymoon In California

The Sterry Memorial Presbyterian Church in Roswell, Idaho was the setting for Vikki Shenk and Joel Price chose for their evening wedding September 2, 1972. The Reverend Raymond Wilson performed the double-ring ceremony in the presence of over 250 guests.

Vikki Shenk is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shenk of Ridgeview community, Adrian, Oregon. Joel Price is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Price of Sunset Valley community, Adrian.

The sanctuary was decorated with bouquets of gladiolas, carnations, and wide ribbons in the wedding colors of white and pastel shades of blue, green, yellow and pink. Tall white candles burned in the candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional styled wedding gown with fitted lace bodice and sleeves. The high collar was of lace and the full satin skirt was draped with a lace overlay. A crown style tiara of tiny pearls and lace roses held the three tiers of her elbow length veil. Her bridal bouquet was of pink and white roses, blue carnations, yellow stephanotis with pastel blue and green ribbons.

Mrs. Grant Joki, Boise, wearing blue, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were the bride's sisters, Toni in yellow, Robin in green and Louise in pink. All attendants wore the same style of gowns with princess lines, short puff sleeves and stand-up collars trimmed with lace. Each girl carried three long-stemmed roses--pink, yellow, and white with blue and green ribbons.

The bridegroom's best man was Grant Joki, Boise. Ushering the guests were Rodney Price, Adrian and Kelly Groves, Parma, nephews of the groom; also Paul Shenk, brother of the bride.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Price chose a navy blue dress trimmed in white. Her corsage was of pink roses. The bride's mother wore a kelly green dress with a corsage of yellow roses for the occasion.

Diane Thomas was the organist. She also accompanied on the piano, the soloist, Cheryl Albritton, Monmouth, Oregon. She is the bridegroom's niece and she sang two songs for the wedding, "Close to You" and "Nice To Be With You".

A reception in the church basement followed the ceremony. The three-tiered cake was decorated in the wedding colors. Two large white bells topped the cake with the names "Vikki" and "Joel" inscribed inside the bells, and two blue candles were lighted beside it. Serving the cake, punch and coffee were Mrs. Danny Cutler, Mrs. Steve Krieh, Miss Lisa Sykes, and Miss Christy Shenk, aunt of the bride. Attending the gift table were the Misses Teresa Lane, Sheila Pratt, and Denise Mausing. All are from Adrian.

In charge of the flowers was Mrs. Christy Willhite, Homedale, aunt of the bride. Sherri Price, Adrian, niece of the groom, attended the guest book.

For her going away outfit, the bride chose a forest green pants-suit. The newly weds, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Price traveled to Lake Tahoe and the Redwoods in California on their wedding trip.

The bride is a 1972 graduate of Adrian High School. The bridegroom also graduated from Adrian High and from the Oregon State University in 1969. The couple are making their home in Sunset Valley, where Joel is farming with his father.

MRS. IDA ERICKSON OF PARMA, Rt. 2 received a beautiful birthday anniversary greeting card October 3 from President and Mrs. Richard Nixon. She was 91 years young on September 28. She lives alone in her trailer home near her daughter, Mrs. Deloss Vinsonhaler on Foss Island. She is very active, raising a garden each year and her hobbies are crocheting, knitting and piecing quilts. She has made many lovely afghans and quilts in the past years.
