

Reception Honors Munns

A reception held October 21 at the Nyssa L.D.S. Church honored Mr. and Mrs. Steve L. Munn who were married October 17 in double-ring ceremonies solemnized at the Salt Lake Temple.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Fife of Nyssa, who were hosts at the reception. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Munn of Ontario.

The bride wore a satin empire waist gown with bodice overlaid with lace and seed pearls. The satin sleeves were covered with full gathered lace over the top and cuffed at the wrist. Her shoulder length veil was crowned with a self-made satin rose and velvet leaves and laced with pearls. She carried pink carnations interlaced with burgundy rose buds and babies breath.

Charles Hoffman served as bestman. Mrs. Doreen Elguetabal was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Teresa Munn, sister of the bridegroom and Chris Norman. They wore floor-length burgundy crepe jumpers with long full sleeved pink blouses. Their heads were crowned with lovely pink straw hats and they carried pink carnations and burgundy rose bud nosegays.

The bride's mother wore a pink dress accented with pink carnation and a rose bud corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a burgundy two-piece dress suit and also wore a corsage of carnations and rose buds.

Master of ceremonies for the reception was Blaine Fife, brother of the bride. A piano selection was presented by Rhonda

Green. Brent Gyllenberg gave a violin solo, "Theme from Romeo and Juliet" by Joy Green. Mrs. Iona Flinders gave an original reading about the bride and groom. "We Two" was sung by Maurine and Thane Thomas. Bishop Glenn Peterson gave a few remarks, followed by a response from the bride and groom.

Miss Joy Green presided over the guestbook. Mrs. Karen Fife, and Mr. and Mrs. Clint Chamberlain cared for the gift table. Mrs. Walter Mendenhall, Mrs. Blaine Fife and Mrs. Wilson served at the refreshment table.

The new Mrs. Munn graduated from Nyssa High School in 1970 and attended and graduated from Hollywood Beauty School in Boise. Her husband graduated from Ontario High School in 1970. He attended TVCC and B.T.A. School in Chicago. He is presently serving in the Navy. They are residing at Norfolk, Virginia at the present time.
