

Teresa Haburchak & Juri Peet Wed in Home Ceremony

The home of the Victor R. Haburchaks was beautifully decorated for the four o'clock November 24 wedding of their daughter Teresa Mary Haburchak and Juri Peet.

The double-ring ceremony was performed before the fireplace which was decorated with greenery and pink candelabra. A large basket of pink and green spider chrysanthemums was placed nearby.

The bride's antique white wedding gown was designed for her. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. An antique white lace mantilla covered her hair. Her bridal bouquet of pink and green spider chrysanthemums was centered with a large off-white orchid.

Her sister, Mary Christine, was her maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a floor-length forest green velvet skirt with a light pink long sleeved blouse. She carried a single large pink spider chrysanthemum.

Kai Peterson of Tillamook, Oregon was best man.

The wedding was solemnized before twenty-four family members and out-of-town close friends of the bride.

The bride's mother was dressed in a gold knit dress with eyelet skirt. Her corsage was a dark green orchid.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Ilmar Peet wore a brown dress with lace inset. Her corsage was a lighter green orchid.

Following the ceremony a sit down dinner for all wedding guests was served in honor of the newlyweds.

A wedding reception followed in the evening from 8 to 10 p.m. at the home of the bride's parents.

The reception table was centered with the bride's cake which was decorated with light pink and light green fresh chrysanthemums. Aunts of the bride, Mrs. Alexander Haburchak and Mrs. John Haburchak cut the wedding cake. Serving punch and coffee were Mrs. Russell Winslow and Mrs. Richard Davis, also aunts of the bride.

At the downstairs table assisting with the punch were friends of the bride Miss Joan Jakutis and Miss Karen Fritz. Her sister Katherine was in charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Peet received her bachelor of science degree in Home Economics from Oregon State in June 1972. She is presently in graduate school at the University of Washington. She is enrolled in the dietetic internship program at the University.

Her husband, Juri Peet of Seattle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ilmar Peet of Seattle.
