Hart Speaks To NHS Classes

Visiting Mr. Jerry Huntley's government and history classes, Petty Officer Terry L. Hart talked about U.S. Navy life. After his talk was delivered, students asked questions involving the navy. Some of the jobs that are available were mentioned by officer Hart as electronics, advance torpedos, medic, mechanics, oceanography, dental technicians, and hospital corpsmen.

The main requirement mentioned by officer Hart was that individuals must be high school graduates or pass a qualifying exam.

Terry L. Hart

Twenty five years of age officer Hart has only recently been a sonar technician. Married and the father of two sons Hart stated, "I really enjoy the service, I wouldn't trade the last eight years for anything."
