Every American can participate in the 1973 Presidential Inauguration

On January 20th the chain of our history will be lengthened as the new President repeats the oath sworn by the first President and every President since. An oath assures us that, while the man and the mood may change, we remain one nation indivisible.

In honor of this special occasion The Inaugural Committee has prepared an important collection of souvenirs and memorabilia which is available to every American. In addition to being valuable and historic keepsakes, the sale of these items is used to defray the cost of the Inauguration Ceremonies.

Make your selection now, and be part of the Inauguration which connects our Country today with nearly 200 years of history.

The Official Inaugural License Plate

Special automobile license plates have been authorized for use through January 1973. Plates will be issued in numerical order and the car owner must have a prior registration valid through Jan. 31, 1973. Official License Plates are available at the D.C. Motor Vehicle Department, the office of The Inaugural Committee, 2nd & T.S.W., all AAA locations, and the Redskin Locker Room at 14th and Pennsylvania N.W. for $15 for a set of two.

The Official Inaugural Medal

A handsome and important keepsake of one of America's most historic events, the Second Inauguration of President Richard Nixon and Vice President Spiro Agnew. The Official Medal has been struck in enduring bronze, and it bears the President and Vice President's portraits. The reverse side bears the Presidential Seal. Every American can enjoy this lasting memento for just $6. A special Sterling Silver medallion is $45.
