Cummings-Steinke United In Double Ring Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Stormie Gale Cummings of Vale to Allan Kirt Steinke of Vale and Juntura was an event of December 30, 1972. The couple exchanged vows at a 7 p.m. double ring ceremony at the Vale Christian Church. Ken Beckman of Boise, Idaho officiated. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. William N. Cummings Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Darel Steinke of Vale.

Decorating the church were planter candelabrum with red and white carnations and red and green candles. A poinsetta plant was also used. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin gown made entrain with a lace yoke and a shoulder-length mantilla. She carried a nosegay of white carnations centered with red roses and Christmas greens and tied with red and avocado streamers on a white Bible.

Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Eddie Lee. She wore a gold A-line gown of antique satin and carried a nosegay of white and red carnations and Christmas greens tied with red and avocado streamers. Best man for his brother was Dean Steinke of Vale. Usher was William Cummings Jr., brother of the bride.

A reception was held at the St. Patrick's Parish Hall. The reception table was covered with a lace cloth and net skirt over green. The four-tiered wedding cake was trimmed with red roses and red and white carnations circled the base of the cake. Red ribbon roses decorated the top tier. Guests were seated at tables covered with white cloths and centered with an arrangement of red and avocado bows.

Miss Donna Guericcaglia cut the wedding cake, Miss Mary Ingram served the coffee and Miss Julie Kopp served the punch. Mrs. Tony Justus, Miss Linda McLaughlin opened the gifts and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Cherri Steinke, was in charge of the guest book. Also assisting with the reception were Mrs. Ruth Vice, Mrs. Julian Ceniga, Mrs. Marie McLaughlin and Mrs. Angel Guericcaglia.

The bride's mother wore an Oriental-styled gown of blue with an overprint of white and gold chrysanthemums. The bridegroom's mother wore a purple gown. Both wore corsages of white chrysanthemums. The bride attended Vale schools and graduated from Vale High in 1970. She was trained by and worked for the F.B.I. in Washington, D.C. as a clerk-typist. She later worked as an aide at the Malheur Nursing Home. The bridegroom attended Vale schools and graduated with the Vale High Class of '70. He is employed by the Oregon State Highway Department and headquartered at Juntura.

For her going-away outfit the bride chose a gray pant suit with short gray topcoat. Following a honeymoon in Boise, the couple is now at home near Drewsey.
