

Peterson-Smith United In LDS Temple Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Glen W. Peterson of Nyssa, Oregon, announce the marriage of their daughter, DeeAnn, to Mr. Laurence A. Smith, son of Mrs. Alice Smith of Newell Heights, and the late Kenneth Smith, January 19, 1973 in the L.D.S. Temple at Logan, Utah. The young couple were honored at a reception January 20, at the Nyssa Stake House. The bride wore a traditional-length wedding dress, made of taffeta trimmed with lace on the bodice, and lace applique and pearls on the skirt. Her veil was of nylon illusion with a lace cap, she carried red roses and white carnations.

The bridesmaids were the sisters of the bride and groom, June Vaughn of Kirkland, Washington; Kathy Pratt of Boise, Idaho; and LaRue Smith of Newell Heights. They all wore dresses of red velvet, floor-length, and trimmed with off-white lace and carried red and white nose-gays. The best man was J. Burdette Pratt, a long-time friend of the groom.

The wedding in the Logan Temple was attended by parents, relatives, and friends of the bride and groom. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Peterson of Bountiful, Utah; Mr. and Mrs. James A. Peterson, former Bishop of Owyhee Ward and their son, Darwin, recently returned from an Argentina Mission; Mrs. Leah Peterson, a cousin from North Salt Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Farrell Peterson-Bishop of Owyhee Ward, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Peterson, Othello, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. J. Burdette Pratt, Boise, Idaho; Mrs. Larry K. Vaughn, Kirkland, Washington; and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Smith of Sunset Valley.

The young couple are making their home at Adrian, Oregon, where Larry is employed.

FORMER NYSSANS HAVE CLOSE CALL

Mrs. Charles Smith of Ontario, a former resident of Nyssa, and six children had a close call last week from carbon monoxide poisoning.

She awakened with a severe headache at 7:30 a.m., Thursday, February 8. She talked with one of her boys and he was sick also. She sent another son downstairs to get the daughters, ages 14 and 16. He fainted on the stairway, but the girls were alerted and came upstairs. Another son, taking a shower, was not affected until later when he came upstairs.

A neighbor, Mrs. Kay Mollahan, called a doctor and helped the family in her home until Mr. Smith returned home at noon. The doctor reported that the family suffered severe carbon monoxide poisoning, apparently resulting from the furnace not receiving enough air.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were Nyssa residents for many years before moving to Ontario. He is administrator of Holy Rosary Hospital, after serving in the same position at Malheur Memorial Hospital.

TO THE NEW BABY

by Grandma Turner.

A bundle of heaven came for us to love,
Sent by a loving God above.
Tearfully she said, "I've come to you."
For I need a mama and daddy too.

I've wealth of tresses of golden hair,
Two arms, a necklace for you to wear.
Silver tears and ruby kisses all new,
My eyes are jewels of bluest blue.

We welcome you new baby dear,
A blessing to enjoy each passing year.
To you are the sweetest ever seen,
So cunningly named, "Heide Darlene."
