

Stephens-LaFay Exchange Vows In Home Ceremony January 14

Pamela Kay Stephens of Nyssa became the bride of Kelly Gene LaFay of Phoenix, Arizona at 1 p.m. Sunday, January 14 at the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hicks. The Reverend Robert Hutchinson of the Nyssa Methodist Church officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stephens of Nyssa, Mrs. Kay LaFay of Milwaukee, Oregon and Gene LaFay of New Meadows, Idaho.

Large baskets of white and aqua carnations, roses and gladiolus enhanced both the home and reception decorations.

The bride given in marriage by her father, chose a white floor-length empire-waisted gown. The skirt was overlaid with white and aqua lace. The gown featured a V-neck with lace edging. Her fingertip length veil of illusion was secured with a pearl tiara. She carried a cascade of white roses, aqua carnations, and baby gladiolus.

Mrs. Douglas (Patsy) Hicks, sister of the bride served as matron-of-honor. She wore an aqua street-length dress and carried a nosegay of white and aqua carnations and gladiolus.

Brian Hirai of Nyssa served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Stephens wore a raspberry-colored street-length dress of polyester knit. Mrs. LaFay, mother of the groom chose a rose-pink colored street-length dress of polyester knit. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

The reception, following the ceremony was held at the Methodist Social Hall.

Attending the gift table were Bianca Steinhaus, Karen Winkle, KayC LaFay, and Mrs. Willis Wiley. Serving the guests were Kelli Michael, Trish Wahler, Leann Bair and Lillian Moore. Gwena Orr was in charge of the guest book.

Both the bride and groom attended Nyssa High School. The groom was graduated in 1971 and the bride will return to graduate with her class this spring.

Kelly is manager of Linens at Diamond's Department Store in Phoenix, and his new bride, Mrs. LaFay is employed as a secretary at Union Investment Company in Phoenix where the couple is making their first home.

For their wedding trip to Phoenix, the bride chose a pale aqua dress of polyester knit.

Mrs. Warren Adams Practice Teaching In Nyssa Schools

Mrs. Warren Adams, the former Lucille Bertram, is staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Bertram during the week while practice teaching the English and P.E. departments of Nyssa High School.

Both Warren and Lucille are Nyssa High School graduates. He is a regional news editor with the Nampa Idaho Free Press and the Caldwell News-Tribune, and they live in Nampa. He graduated from the College of Idaho last spring, and Lucille will graduate this spring with a degree in Education after completion of her practice teaching.

Members of Malheur Pomona Grange #33 met in regular quarterly session at noon Saturday, February 17, at Oregon Trail Grange Hall.

The meeting was called to order by Master Ross Harvey. County Deputy Dale Teter was escorted to the Master's station by Assistant Stewards Mr. and Mrs. David Jacoby.

Two resolutions were presented. A resolution from Oregon Trail Grange concerning enforcement of Liability Insurance Laws was approved. A resolution from Willows Grange #22 concerning Probate Laws similar to Idaho Probate Laws to be adopted by Oregon was approved.

Agriculture Chairman Blain Girvin reported on the hearings to be held concerning land use and development. He urged everyone to attend these meetings which will be held in March.

Legislative Chairman Frank Sherwood led a discussion on a proposed school tax and urged everyone to study the measure carefully before voting.

CWA Chairman Clela DeBor reported that the goal for entries in the sewing contest had been raised to 55 for the County and urged the Subordinate CWA Chairmen to do everything possible to help meet it.

Lecturer Ellen Jones requested all Lecturers who haven't already done so to mail in their 4th quarter reports.

During the Lecturer's program the Rock & Pound Orchestra delighted the Grangers with three numbers: "The Red River Valley, The Church in the Wildwood, and the Battle Hymn of the Republic" which was dedicated to President Lincoln and President Washington. The R&P Orchestra is composed of ten or twelve members of Vale Grange and is directed by Mrs. Blanch Burgess. Beside the violin, piano and solist, there are many "unusual" instruments. Director B. Burgess is a former State Lecturer.

Elwood Standage was installed as Pomona Executive Committee member by Deputy Dale Teter.

Prior to the meeting a luncheon was served by Oregon Trail CWA women to 41 members from six granges. The tables were decorated in a Valentine theme. Everyone was invited to "Have a Heart" and the lucky hearts brought gifts to Rose Stone, Vale; Sadie Metcalf, Oregon Trail; Dale Teter, Big Bend; Bertha Sonner, Oregon Slope; Lois Boening, Oregon Trail and Mabel Harvey, Oregon Slope.

The next Pomona meeting will be held May 19, 8 p.m. at Boulevard Grange. A Memorial Service will be observed with Chaplain Mrs. Orville Nichols in charge. All Malheur County Grangers are urged to attend and visiting Grangers are always welcome.

Members of Oregon Trail Grange met in regular session Thursday evening, February 15, with Master Ernie Metcalf presiding.

Legislative Chairman Frank Sherwood called attention to Senate Bill #42 concerning Volunteer Ambulance Districts. Agriculture Chairman Harold Kurtz reported on the success of the California Pilot Work Program.

Mrs. James Stephen made available copies of a letter addressed to NASA, Manned Space Craft Center, Astronaut Office, Houston, Texas, 77058, concerning the right of every human being to express their faith in God and the Bible publicly without fear of censure. The letter is in answer to atheist Madeline Murry O'Hare's demand that the Astronauts be publicly censured for their act and that any further demonstrations of religion be prohibited by public leaders. Mrs. Stephen urged Grangers to express their opinion to NASA.

A discussion was held on why Liability Insurance Laws are not being enforced and a letter of inquiry was directed to Legislative Members Denny Jones and Bob Smith.

During the Lecturer's program, Master Ernie Metcalf told of a recent trip to Mexico City. Mrs. Metcalf described some of the beautiful buildings and showed pictures of street scenes and people. One event turned out to be quite exciting when Ernie decided to have his suit pressed and found that it would cost $40. As it happened the "dollars" were pesos and that makes quite a difference in the price.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Larry Stephen and Mr. and Mrs. James Stephen.

The next regular meeting will be held March 1, 8 p.m. All members are urged to attend.

The letter is in answer to atheist Madeline Murry O'Hare's demand that the Astronauts be publicly censured for their act and that any further demonstrations of religion be prohibited by public leaders. Mrs. Stephen urged Grangers to express their opinion to NASA.

A discussion was held on why Liability Insurance Laws are not being enforced and a letter of inquiry was directed to Legislative Members Denny Jones and Bob Smith.

During the Lecturer's program, Master Ernie Metcalf told of a recent trip to Mexico City. Mrs. Metcalf described some of the beautiful buildings and showed pictures of street scenes and people. One event turned out to be quite exciting when Ernie decided to have his suit pressed and found that it would cost $40. As it happened the "dollars" were pesos and that makes quite a difference in the price.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Larry Stephen and Mr. and Mrs. James Stephen.

The next regular meeting will be held March 1, 8 p.m. All members are urged to attend.

Members of Oregon Trail Grange met in regular session Thursday evening, February 15, with Master Ernie Metcalf presiding.

Legislative Chairman Frank Sherwood called attention to Senate Bill #42 concerning Volunteer Ambulance Districts. Agriculture Chairman Harold Kurtz reported on the success of the California Pilot Work Program.

Mrs. James Stephen made available copies of a letter addressed to NASA, Manned Space Craft Center, Astronaut Office, Houston, Texas, 77058, concerning the right of every human being to express their faith in God and the Bible publicly without fear of censure. The letter is in answer to atheist Madeline Murry O'Hare's demand that the Astronauts be publicly censured for their act and that any further demonstrations of religion be prohibited by public leaders. Mrs. Stephen urged Grangers to express their opinion to NASA.
