

NHS Students Participate TVCC Vets' Club In Declamation Contest Meets Feb. 21

Participating in the Declamation, February 17, in the Nyssa High School Cafeterium were nine schools, Ontario, Vale, Weiser, Emmett, Vallivue, Wilder, Melba, Kuna and Nyssa. Approximately 90 students participated.

Some of the events featured were Extemporaneous, Oratory, Impromptu speech, Humorous, Serious Readings, Panel Discussion, Retold Story, Original and Memorized Oratory, Radio Commentary and Original Essay. Group events include One Act Plays, Radio Drama, and Choral Reading.

These events were judged by Mrs. Elaine Smith, Mrs. Adriana Kunkel, Mrs. Donna Blackburn, Mr. Max Brittingham, Mr. Deryl Leggett, Mr. Jerry Hansen, Mr. Clyde Swisher and Mr. Mike Anderson.

Students receiving excellent rating from Nyssa High School include Patty Seuell, Humorous Reading; Kris Rigney, Poetry Reading; Dwight Calhoun, Extemporaneous; Kirk Savage, Panel Discussion; Teresa Lauerback, Janet Dail, Heidi Smiley, Vedas Estrada, Jeff Marquez, Kirk Savage, Kevin and Nyssa. Approximately 90 students participated.

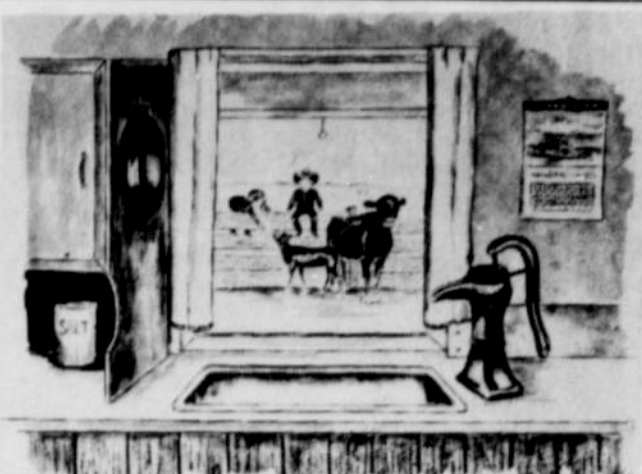

Representatives of the Treasure Valley Community College Veterans' Club wish to remind all area veterans of the symposium to be held on campus, February 21, from 9 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Scheduled to speak with the veterans will be Mr. Lou Smith and Mr. Marvin Rosmuny of the Department of Veterans' Administration, and Mr. Ted Kittleson and Mr. Bob Lee of the Oregon Board of Education. Also, prospective employers are being invited.

All area veterans who have questions about educational or medical benefits, home and farm loans, or employment opportunities should attend. Lunch will be provided, compliments of the TVCC Veterans' Club.

For further information, contact Mr. Lou Gasca at 889-6493, or a member of the TVCC Veterans' Club.

A gift of a set of bracelet and earrings was presented to Mrs. Dimmick by Association President Lynn Snodgrass. The afternoon was spent visiting.
