Road Test named the entire big Ford line "Car of the Year."

Motor Trend named Ford LTD "Full-size Sedan of the Year."

Shouldn't you name Ford your car for 1973?
Awards from these magazines is high praise, indeed. Because they really give a car a tough going-over. Before they give it anything. So your Ford Dealer is pretty proud that big Fords like the LTD and Galaxie 500 drove off with top honors. We're not surprised, though. These quiet Fords have a lot going for them. In fact, Road Test magazine calls the full-size Ford, "... the finest family car to be found at its price in showrooms today." If that sounds like the kind of car that'll make you happy... we're happy.
