Double Ring Ceremony Unites Julie Jensen-Raymond Haltiner

Miss Julie Ann Jensen became the bride of Raymond George Haltiner in a double-ring ceremony at 6 p.m. on March 16, 1973 in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Nyssa. The ceremony was solemnized by Bishop Glen Peterson.

Large beauty baskets of white chrysanthemums and yellow gladioli decorated the church. Pamela Skeen was soloist, accompanied by Gary Laney.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Jensen of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Haltiner of Salt Lake City, Utah.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of lace over satin. The gown was fashioned with a cameo neckline, long lace sleeves and the skirt fell in tiers of lace ruffles. Her chapel length veil of illusion was held to a jeweled crown headpiece.

She carried a Colonial bouquet of babies breath and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Maid of honor was Laura Jensen and bridesmaids were Carla Huffacker and Pamela Skeen. All were attired in matching gowns of pastel yellow shimmering taffeta with a floral background. They wore yellow picture hats with orange velvet bands and carried Colonial bouquets of yellow spider mums with orange streamers.

Valorie Laney was flower girl and her attire was identical to that of the other attendants. Ring bearer was Paul Jensen. Serving as bestman was Richard Bell.

Ushering the guests were Steven Jensen, Ronald Jensen and Darr Jensen.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jensen chose a floor-length gown of yellow sheer over satin. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a multi-colored sheer gown of yellow and orange. Both wore corsages of yellow rosebuds.

A reception followed the ceremony in the LDS Cultural Hall. The four-tiered wedding cake was decorated with yellow roses, cherubs, angels playing harps and wedding bells and topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Assisting at the refreshment table were Mrs. Weston Laney, Mrs. Frank Skeen, Mrs. Steven Jensen, Mrs. Ronald Jensen and Mrs. Darr Jensen. Also assisting were Mrs. James Waddell and Mrs. Pat Braden. For their wedding trip to Bear Lake Resort, the new Mrs. Haltiner changed to a yellow sheer nylon dress accented with white lace and she wore an orchid corsage.

The bride was graduated from Nyssa High School and attended Treasure Valley Community College. The groom is a graduate of the University of Utah. He is presently employed by the City of Salt Lake.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Braden, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. James Whipple all of Boise, Idaho.

AKH Extension Met March 22

The AKH Extension Study group met Thursday, March 22 with Mrs. David LaFleur in the Newell Heights area. Fourteen were present with Mrs. Irvie Topf, president in charge of the meeting. The minutes and secretarys report was given by Mrs. Myron Gossard.

Two tours are being planned for this spring. One, a tour along the Oregon Trail is being arranged by the Huntington Study group. It will be held Sunday, April 8 at 10:30 a.m. @ 3 p.m. P.D. Woods, as authority on the Oregon Trail and Huntington Valley will conduct the tour. All interested families in this area are invited to attend. Bring a picnic lunch for your family. The tour will meet at Farewell Bend State Park. Please pre-register soon, and there is no charge.

The second tour will be of KTVB-TV Studio, Eddie's Bakery, St. Alphonsus Hospital and other points of interest in Boise. Date of this tour will be announced later.

Election of officers was held with the following elected, Mrs. Bernice Toomb, president, Mrs. Mary Laan, vice president and Mrs. Lucille Gossard, secretary-treasurer.

Questionnaires were passed out to the group on "What are your attitudes?" and a tape was played, after which the group filled out the questionnaires and an open discussion followed.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Bernice Toomb.
