

NOT EVERY BOY GETS TO MEET a real live astronaut, and fewer yet got astronaut's signatures on casts, but it really happened to Tommy Jackson, 11-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Jackson, and here he rather bashfully shows off the signatures and cast to prove it.

Tommy attended the reception for the three astronauts in Boise April 30 with his father, and two of the famous men, Ron Evans and Jack Schmit gave him their autographs -- on his cast. The third, Captain Cernan, wasn't around at the moment, but ex-governor of Idaho Don Samuelson signed the cast to make it a valued keepsake long after the cast has done its duty. Tommy broke his leg in a skiing accident shortly before the astronauts visit.
