

Wedding Vows Exchanged By Janet Stowe and Rick Conner

The winter wedding of Janet Christine Stowe and Ricky Gene Conner took place in Portland, January 20, 1973 at a noon ceremony. The Rev. Neil Mason officiated at the double-ring ceremony in the Central Free Methodist Church in the presence of approximately 100 guests.

Parents of the bride are Mrs. LaFaun Stowe of Portland and W.B. Stowe also of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Conner of the Nu Acres area are the groom's parents.

Soloist for the wedding was Marie Porter accompanied by Mrs. Byron Jacobson.

The bride given in marriage by her father was attired in a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and wore a matching veil of lace and net. Her bridal bouquet was of white roses, carnations and babies breath.

Maid of honor was Teresa Stowe and she carried a bouquet similar to the brides. Serving as best man for Ricky was Terry Conner. Steve Sutherland and DeWayne Diebel seated the guests.

The bride's mother wore a dress of light blue knit and the groom's mother, Mrs. Conner chose a dress of pink lace. Both wore corsages of white roses.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held in the church basement. The wedding cake was a three-tiered lemon-filled white cake, decorated with blue flowers.

Mrs. Lena Troutd served the cake assisted by Mrs. Richard Crist. Mrs. Richard Potter poured the punch and Mrs. Robert Lane served the coffee.

Miss Pam Conner officiated over the guest book and Randy Conner was in charge of receiving the gifts.

Janet attended Portland Schools and Ricky is a graduate of Fruitland High School.

The bride chose a blue doubleknit dress for their wedding trip to Newport Beach. The couple are now making their first home in Texas where he is stationed with the Airforce.

Knife & Fork Meets Friday

The members of the Knife & Fork club anticipate one of the highlights of their lecture season Friday evening, April 20, when Robert Kazmayer, editor and publisher will be the guest of honor. The dinner will be held at East Side Cafe at 7:30 p.m.

Regarded as tops among the analytical commentators serving the U.S. platform, Kazmayer is expected to bring members of the club, a comprehensive report on world conditions with emphasis on the long-term outlook for the United States, its policies and opportunities.

To his discussion the speaker brings experience gained through a quarter of a century of nearly continuous travel. Recent journeys include two trips around the world during the course of which he saw military, business and academic leaders and newspapermen in Japan, Hong Kong, Thailand and numerous others in Egypt, Italy, Ireland and Greece.

Though he regards his lecture-tours as more hobby than work, Kazmayer has delivered over 4,000 lectures before U.S. and foreign business groups during the past 25 years. Four years ago, Paul Harvey characterized him as "the dean of the American platform."
