

NEWCOMERS TO NYSSA are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Martin and their two daughters Sue, 6, and Wendy, 4. They are making their home on Cloverdale Avenue.

Mrs. Martin is the former Judy Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson. She is a 1962 graduate of Nyssa High School, and graduated from Eastern Oregon College at La Grande in 1966.

Dick Martin will be associated with his father-in-law in Wilson's Department Store. He is a graduate of Baker High School and worked in a clothing store in Baker during his high school years. He served three years in the U.S. Army in the 82nd Airborne Division from 1961 to 1964, and later attended Eastern Oregon College where he and Judy met.

The Martins came here from Portland where he was route supervisor for Alpenrose Dairy for the past four years. Dick had previously worked for two years with Carnation Dairy in Baker. Judy is busy as a housewife and mother, and is active in her Beta Sigma Phi Sorority.

SENIOR CITIZEN ACTIVITIES

The Senior Citizens of Nyssa wish to announce the meeting in the social room of the Methodist Church Wednesday, June 20 at 3 p.m., with Nancy Scott Ashery as guest speaker. Mrs. Ashery is the coordinator for the Oregon State Council of Senior Citizens. She is here to inform us of benefits available to all Senior Citizens, regardless of membership in a formal group. These benefits are not to be identified as in the poverty level but may be claimed with dignity. The meeting will have a question session.

It is a misconception to believe the Senior Citizens, as a formal group, are organized to "while away" the later years only. This program is good and has its rightful place, but the over-all programming is far more reaching than this. They are ever aware of physical and financial benefits to be had and merited, through state and federal assistance. We hope all those in the community over 55 years of age take advantage of this meeting.

BRIDGE ACTIVITIES

The Mr. and Mrs. Bridge Club was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miner, Saturday, June 2. All regular members were present. Mrs. Neil Dimmick and Tom Eldredge were winners.

CORRECTION

In last week's paper, it was reported that the Tea honoring the girls who will be attending Girl's State, was held at the La Paloma, it should have read at the Palomino Cafe.

Callahan-York Marriage Vows Exchanged May 26

Miss Nancy Carol Callahan exchanged wedding vows with Randy Dee York on May 26, 1973 in the First Church of the Nazarene in Ontario, with the Rev. H. Sanner officiating in the presence of approximately 50 guests.

The church was decorated with beauty baskets of yellow gladiolas and white daisies tied with yellow ribbon. Candelabras with yellow candles graced each side of the altar.

Soloist Ken Friberg sang "A Time for Us" theme song from Romeo and Juliet, accompanied by Mrs. Wilma Sanner. Mrs. Ruth Yavold provided the organ music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Callahan, Big Bend Community, Parma, Idaho. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Everett W. York of New Plymouth.

In the early afternoon ceremony, Nancy was given in marriage by her father. She wore an empire styled floor-length gown of white crepe satin. The gown featured a peter-pan collar and long sleeves gathered into deep cuffs. It was enhanced with pearl buttons on the bodice front and cuffs. Her ballerina length veil was caught to a lily-of-the-valley and pearl tiered band. She carried a cascading bouquet of white mums and yellow daisies interspersed with ferns.

Bridesmaid was Cris Orris of Ridgeview. She was gowned in a princess style floor-length dress of yellow seersucker. The gown was random banded with yellow ribbon and flowered lace trim. She carried a nosegay of yellow daisies and white mums with green ribbon streamers.

Steve Fisher of New Plymouth was bestman and ushering the guests were Jerry Baker of Ontario and Mike York of New Plymouth.

The bride's mother wore a street-length dress of green linen. Mother of the groom wore a black and white street-length ensemble. Their corsages were yellow carnations and white rosebuds.

A reception following the ceremony was held in the church recreation hall. A three-tiered wedding cake graced the reception table. The cake was decorated with yellow roses and silver leaves. The tiers were held with swan pillars and it was topped with a traditional wedding bell combination.

Assisting with serving the cake, punch and coffee were Mrs. Jerry Baker and Bobby of Ontario; Mrs. Monty Crum of Nazarene; Mrs. Walt McConathy of Nyssa; Mrs. Ned Enyart of Ontario and Georgena Nelson, Lorena and Rori Baker were in charge of the gifts and Cheryl York, sister of the groom, attended the guest book.

When the couple left on a wedding trip to McCall and Cascade, the new bride chose a two-piece ensemble of blue and white.

The bride was graduated from Adrian High School in 1969 and attended TVCC for two years. The groom graduated from New Plymouth High School in 1971 and is presently employed at Nelson Sheet Metal Company in Payette, Idaho.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Ray Newman, grandmother of the bride, North Platte, Nebraska; Clarence G. Jackson, uncle of the bride, North Platte, Nebraska; Mrs. Dan Henderson, cousin of the bride, Moscow, Idaho.

Adrian Garden Club

The Adrian Garden Club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ernest Sewell, with Mrs. Marie Moore as hostess with 11 women present.

Mrs. Alida Van De Water, president had charge of the meeting, with the group repeating the gardeners prayer. Roll call was "My Favorite Rose". A report was given on the trip to Succor Creek last month. Most impressive were the beautiful hills, majestic rocks and the chattering of the chuckers all around.

Mrs. Edythe Prosser read the minutes and gave treasurers report. "Wheels of Progress" is the theme for the Fair this year. Members are to bring suggestions for their booth to the next meeting.

Mrs. Gertie Jones told of her recent trip to Israel. Pictures and articles she brought home with her were passed among the members.
