AS PLEASING AS PUNCH One of the nicest things about serving punch. From the viewpoint of the hospitality committee, it is the basic mixture that can be prepared in advance. The flavors actually improve when they have time to mellow and blend. Combine the prescribed fruit juices, tea, fruit, spices, wine or liquor and sweeteners in advance. Leave at room temperature for an hour; then chill until serving time. Make up as many batches of punch base as you need; store them in ordinary quart bottles in the refrigerator. On the average, allow two servings-about four ounces in a five- or six-ounce punch cup, for each guest. More if the party will last longer than an hour or so. Here is the recipe for: PINE PUNCH 1 bottle (fifth) gin 4 cups pineapple juice 2 cups strong tea Blend the ingredients, chill until serving time. Pour over ice in a punch bowl. Makes 18 servings. Repeat as necessary.
