Trudy Olsen—Donald Anderson Exchange Vows

At a double-ring ceremony held June 9, 1973 at St. Matthews Episcopal Church in Ontario, Trudy Jane Olsen of Nyssa became the bride of Donald Henry Anderson of La Grande. The Rev. William Woodman of St. Peters Episcopal Church, La Grande, officiated at the 1 p.m. ceremony in the presence of 250 guests. Decorating the church were beauty baskets of giant daisies, mums and babies' breath. The altar was graced on either side with spiral candelabras of 15 candles each.

Parents of the newlyweds are Dr. John Olsen of Nyssa and the late Vera Olsen and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Anderson of Nyssa.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace with a fitted bodice. The gown's high neckline was complimented by a lace collar and the full Chantilly lace sleeves were gathered into deep cuffs and accented with satin buttons. The train was attached with a self bow. Her full-length veil of illusion was edged with a six-inch border of Chantilly lace. She carried an all-white bridal bouquet of daisies, stephanotis, rosebuds and babies' breath.

Matron-of-honor was Mrs. Tom Flaschner, sister of the bride, and bridesmaid was Julie Anderson, sister of the groom. Their gowns were blue with white polka-dots. Each gown was styled with a fitted bodice, full ruffled skirt and puff sleeves. They each wore a wide-brimmed white hat with a blue ribbon attached at the crown, accented with a cluster of daisies. Each carried a basket of white daisies, rosebuds, babies' breath and tiny mums.

Lorrie Flaschner, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a blue polka-dot frock and carried a basket of rose petals. Kelly Ward was ringbearer and carried a heart shaped pillow of white satin on which the rings were tied with tiny bows. Lighting the candles were Mrs. Alan Lau of Portland and Mrs. Gary Ward of Nyssa.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. The Methodist ladies catered the affair. Cutting and serving the wedding cake were Mrs. Ray Garrison and Miss Carolyn Garrison. Mrs. Ted Morgan, Mrs. Ken Danford and Mrs. Ward Wieneke poured punch. Mrs. Roger Hendrickson poured the coffee and Mrs. Harold Kurtz served the hors d'oeuvres. In charge of the groom's cake and rice bags were Kathy Kurtz, Pam Hendrickson, Paul Hendrickson and Robbie Hendrickson.

For her wedding trip to Sun Valley, Glacier National Park, Banff, Canada and the Canadian Rockies, the bride chose a white polyester dress with a blue over-dress, belted at the waist and blue accessories.

The bride was graduated from the Nyssa High School in 1967, Oregon State University in 1971, attained her teaching certification from the College of Idaho in 1972 and taught school at Vale Union High the 1972-73 school year.

The groom was graduated from the Nyssa High School in 1965, attended Treasure Valley Community College in 1966 and country and a pleasant flight.

Approximately 40 persons from this area made the trip. Mrs. Froerer reports a very enjoyable time, beautiful country and a pleasant flight.

 Where else can you find so many good reasons to bank?

ARLINE ROBB, OPERATIONS OFFICER (seated), with Nellie Pounds, left, assistant operations officer, and Judy Robinson, in charge of new accounts.

There are a lot of good reasons for banking at the Nyssa branch of First National. We think each of our staff is one of them. Take our tellers, for instance. They cash checks. . . take deposits. . . make withdrawals. . . accept payments for bills. In short, they take care of your everyday banking transactions. And you can count on a warm greeting and friendly efficient service every time.

Or there's our operations officer. She'll explain our First Investors Passbook Accounts. . . and open one for you if you like. And she'll assist with your other banking needs, as well. So whether you come in to open an account. . . or ask for some advice. . . our people will be glad to help.

"We'd like to get to know you," is more than a slogan. . . it's how we feel about you - if you're a long-time customer or if you're thinking about becoming one. And we offer modern, complete banking service with more than a century of experience to back us up. What more reason could there be for banking at First National?

We'd like to get to know you.
