ANK GARDEN CLUB RECEIVES AWARD

Members of the ANK Garden Club met at the Jansie Stam home Tuesday, July 10 at 9:30 a.m. with 18 members present. Mrs. Stam and co-hostess Alice Nishitani served brunch before the morning business meeting.

Frances Focht, president, introduced Velma Stam, District 11 garden club director, who reported on the State Convention held June 18, 19 and 20 at Willamette University in Salem. She was accompanied by Agnes Ashcraft, ANK delegate and district chairman of garden therapy.

The ANK Garden Club received the Care award for outstanding support of the World Gardening program of the National Council of State garden clubs. ANK also received a citation of appreciation for money sent to Costa Rica for landscaping, vegetable and flower seeds, gardening tools and supplies. Contributions are used to increase food production and better nutrition in impoverished areas. Garden clubs also are helping farmers increase cultivated acreage with supplies for pump houses for irrigation systems. Garden tools and seeds are used to teach school children about crop rotation, irrigation and basic skills.

Keynote speaker at the convention was National President Mrs. Howard S. Kettle from Texas. As chairman of last year's State Convention held in Ontario, Mrs. Stam gave the response to the official welcome.

The Salem club reported on their drive to preserve the Deep Woods Historical House, as the freeway threatens its extinction.

Gertrude Brandt of Namoa, formerly of Parma and Mel Sultzer of Boise were present. After the meeting, the ladies went out into the garden to enjoy Mrs. Stam's lovely flowers.

OREGON TRAIL GRANGE
Oregon Trail Grange members met in regular session Thursday evening, July 19, with Master Ernie Metcalf presiding.

Agriculture Chairman Harold Kurtz reported on an article stating that "An Apple a Day Not Only Keeps the Doctor Away, But Keeps the Dentist Away Also." The article stated that chewing an apple provided 95% efficiency in cleaning teeth compared to 65% efficiency of the tooth brush.

A quiz on Grange parliamentary procedure was continued by Lecturer Marguerite Moss. Winners of awards for having the most correct answers were: Don Somers, Orma Cleaver, and Stanley Sisson.

Members voted to meet Thursday evening 8:30 p.m., August 23 instead of August 16 because of conflicting dates of the County Fair.

Refreshments were served by the Stanley Sisson and Elvin Ballou couples.

Mrs. Moss announced that Bruce Sarazin will be guest speaker at the next regular meeting August 2, and will show a film on solid waste problems in Malheur County. Hosts for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Duane Buchtel and Mrs. Leroy Herrman. All Grange members are urged to attend.
