

Eva Klinkenberg-Wayne Tucker United in Afternoon Service

Repeating wedding vows in the Harlow Chapel, First Baptist Church in Eugene on May 12, 1973 were Miss Eva Mae Klinkenberg, of Springfield, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Klinkenberg of Nyssa and Wayne Riley Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Tucker of Yoncalla, Oregon.

The Rev. Delbert White of Drain, Oregon officiated at the 2:30 p.m. double-ring ceremony performed in the presence of 150 guests. The church was decorated with large beauty baskets of gladioli. Soloist was Lowell Chase accompanied by Mrs. Lowell (Pat) Chase.

Given in marriage by her brother Daniel Klinkenberg of New York, the bride was attired in an empire style floor-length gown of white crepe, featuring a scoop neckline and green and white trim accented the waist, short sleeves and skirt hem. She wore daisies in her hair and carried a cascading bouquet of white and yellow daisies. Her only adornment of jewelry was a ruby necklace, a family heirloom.

Mrs. Kathy Ambrose was matron of honor. Bridesmaid was Mary Wahlert. Their floor-length gowns of green crepe were trimmed with green and white. They wore daisies in their hair and carried bouquets of white and yellow daisies. Candelighters were Misses Kristine and Delyn Freeman, nieces of the bride. They were gowned identical to that of the other attendants.

Steve Tucker served his brother as bestman and ushering the guests were Stewart Stevenson and Tim and Philip Klinkenberg, brothers of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a street-length dress of deep apricot Shan tissue with a beige lace jacket. Mother of the groom chose a blue street-length dress. They each wore an orchid corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church social hall. A five-tiered wedding cake, laced with fresh yellow daisies graced the bride's table. Assisting at the serving table were Mrs. Frances Lewellen and Mrs. Earl Sager, aunts of the bride, Mrs. Elma Partridge, grandmother of the groom and Mrs. Milly Dooley.

The new Mrs. Tucker is presently employed by the State of Oregon at the University of Oregon in Eugene. Her husband is employed as a civil engineer for Plants and Britton.

Following a wedding trip to California the newlyweds are making their home in Florence, Oregon.
