Dream of Fair Victories

LESLIE LINEGAR, FFA

NEAL LINEGAR, 4-H

Fair week is a special time for those area youngsters who participate in either 4-H or Future Farmers of America (FFA).

This past week, as the date for the Malheur County Fair came closer, a number of these youngsters were hard at work getting their project animals ready for the judge's examination.

LESLIE LINEGAR, 15, FFA, will have a number of sheep entered in the fair this year and that means some close work with the shears.

NEAL LINEGAR, 11, 4-H, has his fingers crossed in hopes that his steer will impress the judges in the beef division.

JERRY ROBBINS, 16, FFA, is going to enter some of his healthy-looking corn in the produce division at the fair.

MIKE PARKER, 14, FFA, has been working hard to get his prize steer ready for a run at the ribbons in the beef division.

JUDY MECHAM, 15, 4-H, plans to enter one of the "best groomed" sheep the judges have ever seen.

BRIAN PIERCY, 13, 4-H, is trying to keep his pig clean long enough to win a ribbon in the Market Hog division.

Ribbons or no ribbons, however, all of the youngsters who actively participate in the 4-H and FFA will get a special enjoyment and education out of this year's Malheur County Fair.
