I had my doubts when someone mentioned Zucchini Bread but when I tasted it all my doubting was over because it was delicious. I've made it twice since and its equally good each time. It tastes like Pumpkin Bread and is equally as moist. It has the same ingredients except the zucchini and the amounts of the other ingredients vary.

When you make this bread, use your blender to grind the zucchini. It really chops it fine—just be careful it isn't too fine.

cover with the milk, egg and cheese. Dot with butter and bake in a 425-degree oven until cheese is melted and top nicely browned. Serves 4.

GRAPE COOLER

2-6 oz. cans frozen grape juice
1 tbsp. lemon juice
1 pint vanilla ice cream

Blend all the ingredients for one minute in the bowl of your electric blender.

Variation: Add 1-cup ginger-ale and 1-cup crushed ice before serving.

When winter winds howl outdoors there's nothing so welcome as a hot drink. Grape Juice can be the answer.

I've seen grapes spoiling in the markets in former years but I'm sure this won't happen again! Not this year! Share with your neighbor if you have some you can't use.

HOT MULLED GRAPE JUICE

2 qts. grape juice
1/4 cup sugar
1-2 cinnamon sticks
4 whole cloves
4 whole allspice.

Tie the spices in a small bag and drop into a large saucepan. Pour in the grape juice and sugar and bring to a boil. Let stand 10 minutes to blend the flavors. Remove spice bag and serve.

Another Zucchini dish - Zucchini with Cheese. This is a good main dish and very nutritious. The Zucchini, if young and tender, need not be peeled, thus preserving the vitamins in the skin.

1/4 cup milk
1 egg, beaten
2/3 cup cheese grated

MALHEUR MEMORIAL HOSPITAL
A Report To The People

Gale Christensen, Administrator

The Director of Nurses is one of twelve registered nurses employed by Malheur Memorial Hospital. In addition to this, she is responsible for 32 LPN's and Aides. In fact, the Director of Nurses is responsible for 44 of the hospital's 69 part and full-time employees. The director is the person who has assumed the responsibilities for the smooth functioning of each phase of nursing service in the hospital and the Skilled Nursing Facility.

The Administrator is her superior and he holds her responsible and accountable for the quality of nursing service and the upholding of the hospital policies, yet keeping the costs to the patient at a minimum. While nursing service is the most important responsibility, many subdivisions are necessary to keep it up to date. This includes interviewing prospective employees, nurses, LPN's and aides; discussing new drugs and up to date equipment with sales representatives; checking faulty equipment in need of repair or replacement; and planning training programs and in-service education of nursing service. She keeps abreast with the working schedule for professional coverage of each 24-hour period, 365 days a year.

With sickness of employees, holidays and vacations, this alone is almost a full-time position.

She is also a mediator, consultant and co-ordinator for the departments within the hospital and between the medical staff and the personnel.

There are continued advancements being made in the nursing service each year. It is to the public's interest as well as the hospital's, that symposiums are held several times a year in the surrounding area for the personnel to attend.

It is the responsibility of Mrs. Margaret Bennett, Director of Nurses to attend or decide who should attend the various classes and bring back to the rest of the employees thru in-service education what she has learned by attending these seminars. The employees ask questions and she must know the answers. In this manner the hospital is able to keep up-to-date on the latest in medical care.

While the director of nurses is a human being with human feelings, she must maintain an open-door policy to all situations and nursing service problems. Each day brings problems of a different nature and each must be handled separately as human lives are involved. No employee should be asked to do a job that a director does not want to perform merely to show authority. There is no room for personality conflicts or favoritism to any employee. Within the hospital is a professional team of employees that strives for the best patient care and the recovery of the maximum number of patients. This could not be obtained if the hospital was not a smooth working organization. In this regard the Malheur Memorial Hospital has been very fortunate. Each employee has a feeling of self-satisfaction in his or her employment. In turn, patients feel secure during their illnesses and the stay is more enjoyable at the Malheur Memorial Hospital.
