

Nazarene Church Setting For Manley-Hoyt Vows

Sherilyn Raye Manley of Nyssa, and Bill K. Hoyt of Tillamook, Oregon, were united in marriage in Nyssa's Church of the Nazarene on Saturday evening, August 4, 1973. Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was the father of the bride, the Rev. Robert Manley, assisted by Dr. Fred Knight and the Rev. R. E. Manley, the bride's grandfather, both of whom are from Nampa, Idaho. Parents of the newlyweds are the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Manley of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hoyt of Tillamook.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown fashioned by her mother. The fitted lace bodice was trimmed with white satin ribbon and seed pearls, while the three-tiered hoop skirt of nylon organza and the floor-length veil were trimmed in lace with seed pearls and sequins. The bride carried a bouquet of white daisies with yellow rosebuds.

Matron of honor was Connie Dunn and bridesmaids were Darlene Loeber and Ruth Steinhaus, with Jan Alexander as flower girl. These attendants were attired in gowns with orange-flowered skirts and bodices of apple-green crepeback satin, and each carried a bouquet of white daisies.

The groom was attended by Bob Dunn, cousin of the bride, as best man, Mike Smith, the groom's brother-in-law, and Bob Dawley.

The candlelight church was decorated with baskets of white daisies and orange gladiolus. Approximately 200 friends and relatives of the young couple attended the ceremony.

Organist for the wedding was Rosemary Martin and a flute solo was presented by Sherrie Fitzsimmons. Vocal solos were sung by Geri Manley and Rosemary Martin accompanied by Edith Aman.

The bride's mother wore a mint-green and pink-flowered print street-length dress. The mother of the groom was attired in a green and white print street-length suit. Both wore pink orchid corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the new fellowship hall at the church. The hall was decorated with baskets of white daisies and orange gladiolus. The four-tiered wedding cake was decorated with a pillar of bells and white, orange and yellow roses and daisies. The cake was cut by Mrs. Floyd Westlake, Kinnear, Wyoming, a friend of the bride. Punch and coffee were served by Miss Beryl Hoyt and Mrs. Mike Smith, sisters of the groom. Other assistants at the reception

Messiah Rehearsals Start In October

Announcing the approach of the forthcoming Messiah rehearsals, Jeff Sandberg, Nyssa High School choral director, stated that the rehearsal for the community performance will begin Thursday, October 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school choral room. All former chorus members as well as new members are invited to participate.

If there are any questions please feel free to contact Mr. Sandberg at the high school or at 372-3638. Performance date has been set for December 9.

Adrian Garden Club

The Adrian Garden Club met Monday afternoon with Bee Grossnickle. Ten members were present. Mrs. Boyce Van De Water, president, had charge of the meeting. The meeting opened by the group repeating the Gardner's Prayer. The secretary and treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Edythe Prosser. A committee was appointed to go to the Nyssa hospital and nursing home and see what the club could do to help out where most needed. Mrs. Ernest Seuell gave the program which was on "digging bulbs and their care."

were Mrs. Bill Fitzsimmons, Mrs. Joe Hobson, Mrs. Jim Langley and Mrs. Bob Martin. Nancy Wilson was in charge of the guest book.

Out of area guests included Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hoyt and Beryl, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Art Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Kinnaman, all of Tillamook, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brogan and family, from Cornelius, Oregon; Lisa Manley, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Manley and family, Eugene, Oregon; Mrs. Jim Quick and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wolfstone, Gary and Alan Holcombe, all of Seattle, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dunn and Debbie, Olympia, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Leober, Connell, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Westlake, Kinnear, Wyoming.

The bride was graduated from Nyssa High School in 1968, the groom graduated from Tillamook High School, and both are 1972 graduates of Northwest Nazarene College.

Following their wedding trip to British Columbia, the newlyweds are making their home in the Tillamook area where they are engaged in the operation of a milk ranch. The new Mrs. Hoyt is teaching in a community kindergarten.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB

The Friendship Club met at the IOOF Hall September 7, 1973. Merle Johnson president, presiding. Eighteen members answered roll call. Two guests were Mrs. Mary Moates, Burley, Idaho and Mrs. Vina Fox from Nyssa. Four tables of Bunco were in play, with Ida Walters high, Mary Moates traveling, and Louise Wernick low. Hostesses were Virginia Rookstool and Verna Martin. Next meeting will be October 5 at the home of Kathleen Wheeler, 516 North 6th Street at 2 p.m.

W.W. I Barracks

Auxiliary # 352

World War I Barracks and Auxiliary #352 met at the Vale Grange Hall on Sunday, September 16. There were twenty members present and Mrs. Mildred Deardroff of John Day was a guest. A pot-luck dinner was served at 1:30 p.m.

A District #6 meeting will be in La Grande October 21. Those attending should bring potluck. The meeting will take place at 12:30 P.M. The local Barracks and Auxiliary meeting will be postponed for one week to October 28, 1973. New dues cards are now available.

Hometown News

Call 372-2233

Miss Frances Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Foster of Nyssa, left by plane Saturday morning for Portland. She was an overnight visitor of the Rev. and Mrs. David Wiens in near-by Vancouver, Washington. She went to Seattle, Vancouver B.C. on to Tokyo, Asakah, Manila and will reach her destination which is Karachi, Pakistan where she will be doing missionary work, either teaching or evangelistic work in Karachi or Lahore.

Mrs. Ethel Lay and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Byers of Nyssa visited in Caldwell at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sommars Friday evening.

Mrs. Glen Eldredge and Mrs. Harry Wells of Boise were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Eldredge.

The Rev. and Mrs. Floyd E. White of Kennewick, Washington visited in the John Long home last week. The Rev. White was minister of the Methodist Church here in the 1930's. Mrs. Long brought John home from the hospital on Friday. He had surgery last week. Mrs. Long reported that he is getting along very well.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Jensen and Mr. and Mrs. LaVon Jensen visited with friends in Meridian on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Jack Gannon from Othello, Washington visited with Mrs. Tom Johnson Sunday morning. Mrs. Johnson spent Sunday afternoon in Caldwell visiting her daughter, Mrs. Pat Sweaney.

Guests in the Bill Wahlert home have been their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Sands and two daughters, Jennifer and Stacy. They are from Carrollton, Texas.

Guests from Spearfish, So. Dakota visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miner last week from Saturday until Wednesday. They were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Burki. Mr. Burki is Harry's uncle.

GRANGE NEWS

OREGON TRAIL GRANGE Members of the Oregon Trail Grange met in regular session Thursday evening, September 6, with Master Ernie Metcalf presiding. Assistant Steward Don Somers and Lady Assistant protem Ciella Jamieson seated the officers.

A report was given by Overseer Harold Kurtz on a recent trip thru Arizona and New Mexico where the family had an opportunity to visit Retirement Homeland Sale projects. At one project, a store keeper mentioned that water had to be hauled 50 miles.

Legislative Chairman Frank Sherwood led a discussion on a petition referendum concerning striking by public servants. During the Lecturer's program, a skit written by Marguerite Moss was acted out by the Gate Keeper, Stewards and Assistant Stewards. It was entitled "The Story of the Staffs." It explained the meaning of each staff and the duties of the officer who carries the staff.

Refreshments were served by Marguerite Moss and Ellen Jones. A timer clock had been set to go off at intervals during the lunch and as their numbers were called members responded by telling what they would like for Christmas in hopes that St. Nick might be listening. Winners of special prizes were Sadie Metcalf and Betty Kurtz who were able to list the names of St. Nick's eight reindeer.

The next regular meeting will be held Thursday evening, September 20. Hosts for the evening will be the Harold Kurtz and Don King couples. All Grangers are urged to attend.

Nolan Field-Waldo Co. INSURANCE AGENCIES

ALL TYPES OF INSURANCE INCLUDING FARM

Vale - Ontario Nyssa 372-3162

Engagement Yellow and White Decorates Dority-Elguezabal Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Brown of Payette announce the engagement of their daughter Marcia Ann Brown to E. Lynn Draper, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. and Draper of Nyssa. Draper, a 1967 graduate of Nyssa High School has served a two-year mission for the LDS Church, attended TVCC and is presently employed by Evans Lumber Company. Miss Brown is a 1971 graduate of Bend High School and has attended Ricks College. She is employed by Sprouse-Reitz. The couple is planning an October 12 wedding in the Ogden LDS Temple.

John Birch Society Schedules Talk

"ASSASSINATION AND FIREARMS - A Special Report About the Plot To Kill George Wallace" is the title of a talk to be given by Timothy R. Heiman at The Weese Building at Treasure Valley Community College in Ontario, on Tuesday, September 25, at 8:00 p.m. Heiman is appearing locally, sponsored by The John Birch Society. The public is invited.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS

Bethel #33 held its first meeting September 12 at the Masonic Hall. Marcel Myers Honored Queen presiding.

Escorted and introduced were Bob and Della Holmes Guardian and Associate Guardian, Past Associate Guardian Myrtle Sasser, Past Associate Guardian Clyde Swisher, Past Princess Glenda Barnes, and Foy Sasser Worshipful Master Golden Rule Lodge #147. The meeting was preceded by a potluck dinner in honor of Bob and Della Holmes, retiring Guardians.

During the meeting the 1973-74 Council members were installed. Those installed were Guardian, Vera Webb; Associate Guardian, Clyde Swisher; Guardian Secretary, Glenda Barnes; Guardian Treasurer, Kathleen Wheeler; Director of Music, Marie Wilson; Director of Epics, Myrtle Sasser; Committee on Hospitality, Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Munn; Socialability, Alicia Shell; Fraternal Relations, Foy Sasser; Paraphernalia, Shirley Webb; Finance, Paul Kunkel.

Mrs. Don Savage and Mrs. Alberta Morrow attended the Scouters' Picnic in Lion's Park in Ontario September 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smiley's grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cecil stopped to visit on their way home to Ingleswood, Calif. Sam has been in Virginia for the summer playing baseball for a farm club of the Minnesota Twins.

Mrs. Don Savage and Mrs. Alberta Morrow attended the Scouters' Picnic in Lion's Park in Ontario September 13.

On behalf of Bethel #33 for their services Honored Queen Marcel Myers presented Mr. and Mrs. Holmes with a gift.

There will be a meeting on September 19 and there will be a regular meeting September 26. The Grand Guardian will visit at a special meeting October 4. Bethel #33 served breakfast for the Krazy Days at the Masonic Hall.

Maid-of-honor Margaret Dority wore a gown of white seersucker styled with a daisy print empire waist and flounce. She wore a yellow hat and carried a cascade of yellow and white daisies. Bridesmaids were Anna Dority, Julia Elguezabal, Ellen Ashby and Connie Jensen of

In a beautiful setting of yellow and white daisies and candles Saturday evening, September 1, 1973, Mary Ann Dority became the wife of John Elguezabal. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Father Robert Simard of Nyssa and Father Charles Young of Baker at St. Bridget's Catholic Church in Nyssa. During the ceremony, a Lasso was placed around the bride and groom in Mexican tradition.

Soloist was Cathy Gardner and providing the wedding music was Mrs. Harry McGinley. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John Dority of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Maximiliano Elguezabal of Nyssa.

The bride's floor-length gown of lace over white satin was styled with an empire waist and A-line skirt. The gown featured a high neckline, full sleeves and a chapel train bordered with lace. Material for the gown was purchased in Mexico by the groom. Her tiered veil of illusion was held to a headpiece of daisies. She carried a cascading bouquet of yellow and white daisies centered with an orchid. The orchid was a gift from Marge Pace of Apple Valley. Her "something old" was a hanky borrowed from her grandmother, Mrs. Klein of Parma. "Something blue" was a garter.

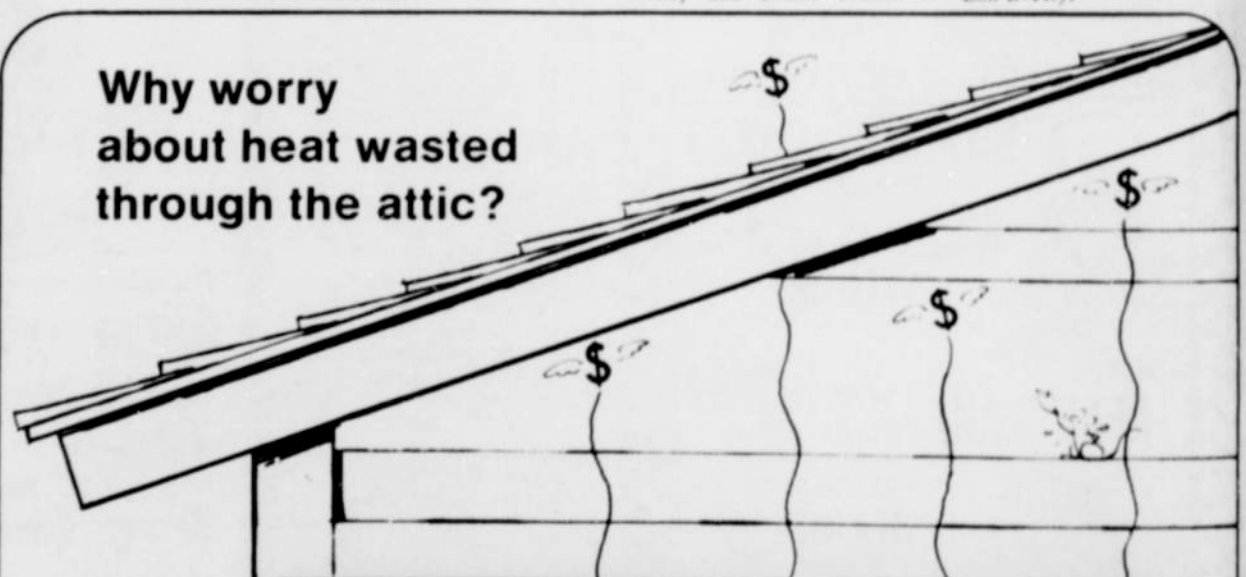

Maid-of-honor Margaret Dority wore a gown of white seersucker styled with a daisy print empire waist and flounce. She wore a yellow hat and carried a cascade of yellow and white daisies. Bridesmaids were Anna Dority, Julia Elguezabal, Ellen Ashby and Connie Jensen of Both the bride and groom are graduates of Nyssa High School. Mary Ann attended Kuman Business College in Spokane, and John attended Southern Oregon College in Ashland.

The newlyweds are presently residing in Nyssa and plan to make their home in Musquig Coah, Mexico in October.

Out-of-town guests included Margaret Wlaschin of Minnesota; Mrs. John Pyle of Indiana; Mrs. James Casey and family of Turlock, Calif.; Patricia Frendera and family of Vancouver, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dority and family of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Dority and family of Portland and Don Dority.

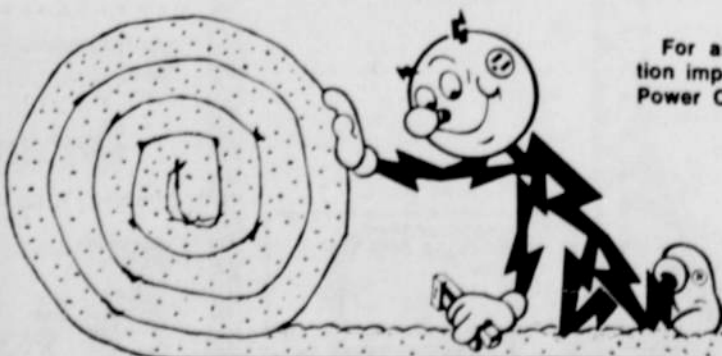

Why worry about heat wasted through the attic?

It's only money!

With many heating systems loss of heat up a chimney is unavoidable, but heat wasted through the attic is a loss you can do something about. That's why for the last thirteen years Idaho Power Company has suggested thorough insulation with every electric heat installation.

Today we recommend this sound practice whatever your heat source. In addition to the savings in energy and money, your family will enjoy more comfort. For best results we recommend our Gold Medal insulation standards, but any substantial improvement will bring continuous savings. Insulate now and join the energy savers!

For assistance in planning your insulation improvements, call at your local Idaho Power Company office.

Idaho Power Company

The energy you need for the life you lead

1974 NEW CAR SHOWING

THURSDAY, SEPT. 20

FREE DONUTS & COFFEE THURS. & FRI.

Johannesen-Adams Motors, Inc.

420 MAIN STREET NYSSA, OREGON PHONE 372-2224