There were 31 registered contestants, the youngest being a little girl in kindergarten who rode a mighty big horse and the oldest contestant, a grandfather. Allen McGrath announced the scheduled events plus an unscheduled pony express race, western pleasure course, and handling of your horse.

Christy Chamberlain of Nyssa received the Jr. All Around trophy on a point system basis with Kim Rockstool and Tom Armstrong tied in points for runner-ups.

Sr. All Around trophy was received by Gayle Hawkins of Vale, closely followed by Vicki Rockstool and Robin Ross in points. In each event, three places received ribbons.

The playday closed with a last polo match with both sides claiming to be the winners.

The Horse Activities Club has received many favorable comments about the playday and so well received they hope to hold another playday in the near future.
