

Orange and Apricot Theme at Rigney-Beutler Wedding

Arrangements of orange and apricot gladioli, orange carnations, candelabras with orange candles was the setting for the marriage of Karen Elaine Rigney and Russell Beutler. The July 17 wedding took place in the First Christian Church in Nyssa.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Jane Fonda and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Beutler of New Plymouth.

The Rev. Earl Dean Johnson officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Julie Peterson played the traditional wedding music. Soloists were Moyle Brown who sang "Love is Blue." The bridegroom sang "All for You" accompanied by the rock musicians "Brandywine." Moyle Brown and Ron Beutler sang "The Road Not Taken," accompanied by Darrel Barker of New Plymouth.

Given in marriage by her grandfather, Jess W. Rigney, the bride wore a white slipper satin, floor-length gown featuring a bodice of tucked smocking and full sleeves. It was fashioned by Mrs. Dorothy

March of Boise. The bride's tiara of orange and apricot roses and babies breath was graced with long white satin ribbon streamers. She carried a cascade bouquet of orange and apricot roses with babies breath and long white satin ribbon streamers with inserts of roses.

Chris Rigney, sister of the bride, was her honor attendant. She wore an apricot floor-length gown with white lace elbow gloves. Her headband was white satin and orange ribbon with babies breath. She carried long stemmed orange roses.

Kim Beutler, brother of the groom from Gladstone, Oregon was best man. Ushering the 150 guests were Phil and Rick Pittman and Douglas Fowler, cousins of the groom and Steve Fisher, all of New Plymouth. Rick Pittman and Douglas Fowler performed the duties of candle-lighters.

After a honeymoon trip to Boise and McCall, Idaho, Spokane and Ellensburg, and Aberdeen, Washington, the couple is making their home in Oregon City.

ANK Garden Club

Fifteen members and two guests of ANK Garden Club met at Mrs. Martha Judd's home in Newell Heights on October 9. Mrs. Jay Hoover of Parma, co-hostess, served dessert to the members and guests. Mrs. Mark Purcell of Parma and Mrs. Lee Dall of Nyssa.

During the short business meeting, President Frances Focht announced that the district meeting will be held October 18 at 10 a.m. at the East Side Cafe.

Mrs. Hoover gave an account of an European holiday this spring. Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hoover initiated their tour with an invitation to tea with the Lord Mayor--Sheriff of Nottingham. They visited Shakespeare's birthplace, and Ann Hathaway's cottage and gardens. The flowers were beautiful and in full bloom in mid-April.

They visited many castles, including King Henry the Eighth's Warwick Castle, also Windsor Castle, and Edinburgh Castle in Scotland.

In Paris, France they saw the Versailles castle with its 1000 rooms, and were also impressed with the grandeur of the cathedral at Chartre. Also the gardens at the Louvre. They included Germany, Italy and Holland on their tour.

The reception table was centered with a three-tiered cake, decorated with orange and apricot roses, baked by Mrs. Stewart of Nyssa.

Mrs. Phillip Pittman of New Plymouth, aunt of the groom and Mrs. Kim Beutler, sister-in-law of the couple served the cake. Miss Kellene Michaels and Miss Monica Smit assisted with the punch and coffee. Gifts were arranged by Mrs. Ron Beutler and Mrs. Tony Rigney both sisters-in-law of the couple from Oregon City, Oregon.

The new Mrs. Beutler was graduated from Nyssa High School in 1973. Her husband was graduated from Burley High School in 1970. He attended one year at TVCC in Ontario studying music theory. He is with the rock musical group, Brandywine.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in honor of the couple in the church social

GRANGE NEWS

Members of Oregon Trail Grange and the Owyhee Riding Club met for a potluck dinner Sunday, October 14, at Oregon Trail Hall, to honor Clella and Jim Jamieson who will be leaving soon for Portland.

Both have been active in the organizations. Jim having served as Grange Treasurer for two years. Clella was Secretary for two years and Treasurer for 13 years. Jim farmed in the Nyssa area for several years and also did carpentry work before his retirement. They have raised a family of five.

Twenty-two years ago Clella started work as office clerk at the Farmer's Home Administration office in Ontario. Recently she was appointed Office Management Assistant on the Administrative Staff for the State of Oregon. In her new job, she will be training office clerks and personnel for the State of Oregon and Alaska.

Beginning next week, her work will take her to Anchorage, Fairbanks, Palmer, Soldotna, and Wrangell.

Grange Master Ernie Metcalf and Riding Club Representative Charlie Culbertson presented the couple with gifts from each organization and wished them good fortune in their new home and work.

Since the World Series was in full swing, the group spent the afternoon watching the game on the color TV which Neil and Peg Dimmick had so thoughtfully provided.

Mrs. Doreid Steinke of Vale. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an empire styled gown of polyester crepe featuring a scoop neckline, full sleeves and lace covered bodice. The chapel length train, edged with daisies, fell from the shoulders. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was held to a tiny headpiece. She carried a nosegay of yellow daisies and blue babies breath.

Matron of honor was Mel James Haydock of LaGrande. She wore floor-length gown of blue polyester, featuring a smocked bodice and puffed sleeves. Her bouquet was a smaller version of the bride's.

The bridegroom's brother, Kurt of Juntura was best man and Karl Wareham of Newberg, brother of the bride, acted as officiant.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church social hall. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with yellow and blue flowers and topped with a miniature bride and groom. The base was encircled with daisies. Mrs. Clyde Steel cut and served the cake. Pam Weid poured the punch. In charge of the guest book was Cherry Steinke and Sally Wareham received the gifts. Also helping with the reception was Phyllis Chess.

The bride was graduated from the Newberg High School, is a 1973 graduate of Eastern Oregon College in LaGrande and is teaching the 4th grade in Imbler. The groom, a graduate of Vale Union High School and Treasure Valley Community College, is a senior at EOC.

The newlyweds are making their home in LaGrande. The couple was honored at a reception September 8 at the home of the bride's parents in Newberg.
