Bulldogs Homecoming Win Over Emmett, 16-6

By Randy Savage

The Nyssa Bulldogs struck hard and quick in the first half to defeat the Emmett Huskies in the Nyssa Homecoming game. The Bulldogs racked up 16 points in the first half and held the Huskies to nothing. The second half the Bulldogs couldn't get their offense clicking and the defense let six points slip by in the third quarter. The final score of the S.R.V. bout was 16-6.

With the game just in progress the Bulldogs smashed through the Emmett line and crushed a player for a two point safety. Minutes later, Chris Lords carried the ball on a 37 yard sprint to give the Bulldogs an eight point lead. Nyssa's big Jeff Marquez increased the Bulldogs rally by two when he broke through to the end zone.

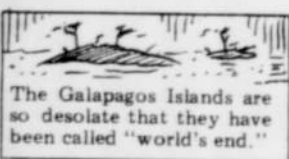

Scoring again in the second quarter was Chris Lords on a fantastic play. Nyssa's so-

NHS Junior Varsity Beats Emmett, 14-0

The J. V. game with Emmett seemed to be a defensive battle with Nyssa coming out on top by the score of 14 to 0.

Scoring both touchdowns for Nyssa was Prudencio Escobedo who intercepted two passes for two touchdowns. Dirk Sappe scored a two point conversion to make it 14 to 0. Nyssa intercepted seven passes in the battle.

Coach Lords remarked, "We played a good defensive ball game." This week the Bulldogs play Kuna.

The Galapagos Islands are so desolate that they have been called "world's end."
