

Bulldogs Beat Kuna, 38-6

By Randy Savage

The Nyssa Bulldogs clubbed the Kuna Kavenen on Kuna's field by a score of 38 to 6 in the SRV bout last Friday night.

Once again Nyssa got on the scoreboard quickly to leave their opponents stunned by a 95 yard kick off return by Chris Lords. Scoring again in the first quarter were the Bulldogs with a 35 yard pass from Neal Oldemeyer to Jeff Marques.

Seeing their opponents were off balance, Nyssa scored 24 more points in the second quarter. Lords again scored on a 52 yard trot and a 40 yard interception return by Mosqueda.

The only score in the third quarter came when Mosqueda buried McCurdy on Kuna deep in his end zone to score a safety.

Not to go scoreless Kuna slipped by Nyssa on a 70 yard run by Frank Fisher.

Nyssa's record stands at 4-4 with a 3-2 S.R.V. record. Nyssa finishes its season at Weiser this Friday in SRV action.

Gymnastics Clinic at TVCC

Treasure Valley Community College will host a gymnastics clinic November 3, for beginning and intermediate girls. Rod Ostbow, Richland, Washington gymnastics coach, and part of his team will teach the clinic which will include a review of all the Olympic events: uneven bars, balance beam, floor exercise and vaulting plus trampolines and tumbling skills.

Clinic Director, Nicki Pierce said the program will run from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., and that students should bring a sack lunch and a $2.00 registration fee. She also requests that coaches planning to attend with their teams observe a limit of fifteen girls. For further information, Ms. Pierce may be reached at 889-6493, ext. 65.

SEVENTH GRADE BEATS VALE, 28-16

Going through three quarterbacks this year, Glen Walker's 7th grade team defeated the Vale Vikings by a score of 28-16.

Scoring for Nyssa were David Ross on three touchdowns and a two point conversion and Jose Delgado with one T.D. and two extra points.

Coach Walker had this to add, "We played very well this season and we've had several good games."

EIGHTH GRADE BEATS VALE, 14-12

Ending the season with a win over the eighth grade champions were the Nyssa Bulldogs with a score of 14 to 12.

Exceptional players for Nyssa were again Roy Rosales and Jim Watson both of whom scored a touchdown. Rosales also came through with a two point conversion for the Bulldogs.

Vale ended upon top being beaten only by Nyssa, the Bulldogs had two losses.

Coach Savage had these closing comments, "We played well and we had a good season."

Steers Killed

Two 600-pound steers were killed Sunday morning when they wandered in the path of a vehicle onto Highway 201 about three and a half miles south of Adrian.

According to Frank Coniga, Malheur County deputy sheriff, the steers were struck by an auto driven by Neil Edwin Evans, 17, Homedale. The car belonged to David S. Beebe of Homedale and received extensive damage.

The deputy said that Evans was uninjured.
