

KLAAS LAAN AND DENNIS MARTIN ARE partners in L & M Farms at Adrian. They are winners this month of Dairymen's Creamery Association's (DCA) "Quality Milk Producer" award. Dennis is in charge of the farming operations and Klaas has the responsibility of the 62 Holstein cow milking herd.

The outstanding characteristic of this dairy farm is management. Laan and Martin have pooled their two farms and rent the land back to the partnership. The partnership owns all the machinery. In order to meet any contingencies that might arise in the future, Klaas and Dennis entered into a full agreement of partnership January 1, 1971.

Mr. and Mrs. Klaas Laan came from Holland in 1948 and started shipping milk from one cow to Dairymen's Creamery Association in 1951. Dennis was raised in the Homedale-Marsing area. He graduated from the University of Idaho in 1969 with a B.S. degree in Agriculture and later married the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laan. They have two children, Tracy, 6, and Russell, 3 years old.

L&M is a member of DHIA with a rolling herd average of 15,600 lbs. of milk and 540 lbs. of fat. They started their present operation three years ago with 28 Wisconsin heifers so their herd is young. They bought no cows and keep all their young stock. With freshening heifers, they will be milking 80 cows by next January 1.

Another outstanding feature of the L&M Farms is the management of crops raised on their 184 acres of irrigated land. Crops are alfalfa, corn and grain which goes to the milking herd and Holstein steers. Klaas and Dennis always get four cuttings of hay.

L&M is completely tied into good management practices. Klaas says "We talk over all management problems. If you don't have good management, pretty soon you'll have nothing."

The Laans and Martins have a new Nevada type double-four herringbone milking parlor. Most of the interior construction is with glazed block.

Local Couples Go on NAPA Tour

Three couples from the Nyssa area enjoyed the NAPA-PACAPULCO Tour, to Acapulco, Mexico. They were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Myrick of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Webb of Adrian. Eleven thousand NAPA dealers have enjoyed this holiday since October 1, 1973.

They spent Saturday, December 1 in Spokane, Washington. Sunday they flew to Acapulco. 168 people were on the flight. They spent five days and four nights at the beautiful Condisa Del Mar Hotel, overlooking the Pacific Ocean. They enjoyed a cocktail reception, delicious food and music by a mariachi band. Later they enjoyed dinner at the Seven Seas Restaurant in the hotel.

Monday, they took a tour of the city, places of interest on the tour were the bull fight ring and the Jai ring; homes of famous movie stars, including John Wayne and Hedy Lamour; the famous cliff divers at LaQuebrada who make their dives from 135 feet high cliffs into the ocean below. NAPA guests were invited to participate in free water skiing, skuba diving, swimming, sail boating and parasailing. George and Alice Huffman enjoyed the parasailing. They said it was great fun. They were harnessed into a parachute and a speed boat attached to the parachute pulled them along the beach until they left the beach and sailed into the air along the shore up over the buildings. Some were 21 stories high. It was fun to watch.

Tuesday was the day for a tour in a glass bottom boat. It was very beautiful and interesting to see many tropical fish in their natural settings. Boys on the boat dived along the way from a rock 75 feet high. The boat passed over the statue of the Virgin Guadalupe. It was made and placed there by local fishermen. It is made of gold and silver. Lunch was served at Roqueta and later they went to Calita Beach. There was a barbecue at the El Presidente Hotel that evening and the entertainment was the Flying Indians, who perform from a pole 114 feet in the air.

Wednesday, Howard went deep sea fishing. He caught a sail fish that was over ten feet long and weighed 135 pounds. The other enjoyed a shopping tour to the New Farmers Market, the Flea Market and other downtown stores. The vendors on the street were most challenging and one certainly did learn how to bargain. Later they toured a night club, the famous Makumbi Club, authentic African atmosphere and entertainment. The next stop was El Fuerte, the major attraction here was the Spanish Flamenco dancers. The tour ended at the LaQuebrada. A farewell party and dinner dance at the hotel completed the evening.

AKH EXTENSION

The AKH Home Extension Study group met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Klaas Laan. There were twelve members and two guests, Mrs. Jerry Conant and Mrs. Betty White present. Project leaders were Mrs. Alice Conant and Mrs. Bill Toomb. The lesson was on the "Various Uses of Potatoes." Next meeting will be a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Myron Osborn.
