Brown-Draper United In LDS Temple Ceremony

A wedding reception was held October 27, at 8 p.m. in the Cultural Hall of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Payette for Marcia Ann Brown of Payette and E. Lynn Draper of Nyssa. They were united in marriage prior to that time in the temple in Ogden, Utah.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Brown of Payette and Draper is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Miland Draper of Nyssa.

The church was decorated with gladioli, carnations and daisies in shades of burgundy, pink and white. The bride wore a long gown of white satin with chantilly lace covering the bodice, sleeves and high collar. The yoke, waistline, hemline and lace train were trimmed with pearls. She wore a fingertip veil with a headpiece trimmed to match her wedding gown. A cascading bouquet of pink roses and white stephanotis with one burgundy rose in the center completed her costume.

Myrna Brown was maid of honor for her sister.

Bridesmaids were Noni Gordon and Sue Keeney of Salem, and junior bridesmaids were Terri Resare, Mission Viejo, Calif., niece of the bride, and Donna Draper, sister of the bridegroom. All attendants wore matching long burgundy gowns with pink satin trim and carried bouquets of pink daisies, pink carnations and white snowflake poms. Alan and Angela Brown, nephew and niece of the bride, were honorary ring bearer and flower girl.

Best man was Rick Follen of Ontario. Ushering the guests were Jack Brown of Ontario, brother of the bride and Willard Draper, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Glen Warner, Payette was in charge of the reception.

Mrs. Leroy Howard cut and served the tiered white

Amity Women Meet

Gary Sant was guest speaker at the December 12 meeting of the Amity Club with Ida Moncur as hostess.

Gary showed custom photo blocks, a new idea in candid photography where subjects are photographed in natural surroundings. They are then mounted on solid hardwood and are suitable for standing or hanging.

The door prize was won by Dorothea Mitchell. Refreshments were served and a white elephant gift exchange caused surprised merriment.

ANK Garden Club

The ANK Garden Club held their annual Christmas party on the afternoon of December 11 at the home of Frances Focht, president, with Agnes Ashcraft serving as co-hostess. Refreshments were served to 14 members and one guest, Mrs. Elizabeth Thrash of O'Dell, Texas, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Loretta Cundall.

After a short business meeting, Alice Nishitani presented the program in song and story. She sang "Mary and a Baby," "Twelve Days of Christmas," and "Silent Night."

wedding cake that was topped with fresh roses, daisies and carnations. She was assisted by Mrs. Dennis Crozier, Mrs. Chad Clark served the punch.

Mrs. Dick Resare, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Rick Wheatcroft, Bend, also a sister of the bride, was at the gift tables along with Mrs. James Skousen, sister of the bridegroom, from Boise. A program was held later in the evening with Bishop and Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Charles Winegar, Mrs. Dan Stokes, Mrs. Treva Leonard, all of Fruitland, and Jack Brown of Orem, Utah, providing the entertainment.

The bride is a graduate of Bend High School. She later attended Rick's College at Rexburg, Idaho. She is employed at Sprouse-Reitz in Ontario. Draper is a graduate of Nyssa High School, served a mission for the church and is now attending TYCC. He is employed at Evan's Lumber Company. The couple is making their home in Ontario.

MR. AND MRS. FRED O. KOCH were honored by Nyssa City Councilmen and city employees and wives at a dinner in their honor Monday evening at the Twilight Cafe. The Kochs (Fred and Molly) left Tuesday morning for their retirement home in Fort Collins, Colorado. Fred has served Nyssa as City Manager for the past nine years.

Sincere appreciation for your cordial relations!
