Baby Shower For Expected Grandchild

The Manuel Mena home on Clark Avenue was the scene of a large party for Mrs. Francisco Rodriguez, nee Yolanda Mena. She is at the home of her parents awaiting the arrival of her first baby. She wished her baby to be born in America. Her husband remained in Mexico to renew his passport to the United States where he hopes to become an American citizen. He is expected to be here soon.

About one hundred friends gathered Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. at the Mena home for the baby shower. After signing the guest book, the ladies and children were taken to the basement, which was decorated in the pink and blue theme. Long blue streamers of crepe paper hung from the ceiling and decorated the stairway. The walls were decorated with pink jackets, boots and bonnets of pink paper and blue shirts, caps and boots. Many courses of food were served, beginning with punch and appetizers, upon the arrival of the guests; continuing on through games and the opening of the gifts. Many courses of meats and desserts were served. There was much music and many games. The last of the guests left for home about 11 p.m.
