in Ontario on Saturday. Special music provided by Young People's Groups, for the morning session, were included in the morning attendance, making a larger attendance. Afternoon attendance was about as usual. Many familiar faces were missing, having been called to a better home. Rev. Bill Jacobson and his family were present. They are preparing to return again to foreign missionary service. Report of the death of Lola Beachel was a shock. She and her husband have spent most of their married years in foreign missionary service. Rev. James Farmer, a young pastor formerly a resident of this area was special speaker. The Harvesters have always provided a most interesting program, their album of pictures of former meetings are being increased each year, by many new faces of missionary workers.

Linda Peine—Chet Choman Exchange Vows in Denver

Linda Peine and Chet Choman exchanged wedding vows in a double-ring ceremony at 7 p.m. in the Mother of God Catholic Church in Denver, Colorado, on December 9, 1973.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John Peine of Nyssa and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Choman of Denver.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white polyester with an empire waistline. Lace accented the bodice, cuffs and ruffle. The full sleeves were gathered into deep cuffs. Her chapel length veil of illusion was gathered and held in place by petals of seed pearls. The veil was enhanced with lace flower appliques. She carried a single large yellow mum.

Mrs. Walt (Sharen) Hinz sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her gown of yellow polyester was styled with an empire waistline and full sleeves that gathered into deep cuffs. She carried a large white mum.

Stacey Hinz, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress of yellow polyester was designed identical to that of the bride. The bride's attendants wore yellow flowers in their hair. All dresses for the bridal party were made by the bride's mother. John Hinz, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Serving as bestman was John Sweet. Ushers were John Choman, brother of the groom and Doug Ochs, brother-in-law of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Peine chose a floor-length gown of white flowered nylon over yellow polyester. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a floor-length gown of bronze brocade. Their corsages were of yellow carnations.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Chapel of the Angels Hall.

Mrs. Doug (Mary) Ochs, sister of the groom, was in charge of the guest book.

The new Mrs. Choman has been employed by the Underwriters Insurance Co., and Safeco Insurance Co. in Denver for the last five years. Linda was graduated from Nyssa High School in 1967. Her husband is in the real estate business in Alamosa, Colorado.
