NYSSA PUBLIC LIBRARY - GO PLACES WITH BOOKS

According to Mrs. Max (Norma) Urry, the following books are now available at the local library.

THE OREGON TRAIL REVISITED - Gregory M. Franzwa - A broad history of the Oregon Trail from the product of several field trips into the American West.

MARKINGS - Dag Hammarskjold - In Markings, Hammarskjold records his gradual discovery of what saying Yes to his neighbor and to Fate would mean and involve, and the various tribulations and temptations, of the Flesh, the World, and the Devil.

THE NEW ART OF LIVING - Norman Vincent Peale - A daring prescription for peace of mind in troubled times like these.

LING-LING AND HSING-HSING - Larry R. Collins - The story of the great pandas' first year in America, showing the winning personalities and habits that have made these exotic immigrants two of the most popular entertainers and peace emissaries ever to hit the United States.

STREET DIRECTORY OF THE PRINCIPAL CITIES OF THE UNITED STATES - P. V. DeGraw - A street directory of the principal cities of the United States 1908.

MUSEUMS IN NEW YORK - Fred W. McDarragh - A descriptive reference guide including Historic houses, zoos, botanical gardens and libraries.

P.S. YOUR NOT LISTENING - Eleanor Craig - A teacher's story of her work with five emotionally disturbed children.

THE ARTISTS' AMERICA - Marshall B. Davidson - The illustrations shown in this book indicate what an abundance and variety of first-rate talents have worked in this vein in America over the past generation or so.

THE WRITERS' AMERICA - Marshall B. Davidson - This book offers a panoramic view of the American scene and the American people of American experience, in short, as it has appeared to American writers, from the first days of settlement until modern times.

ALEXANDER HAMILTON - Mary Jo Kline - A felicitous and penetrating account of Hamilton and his times that will enable the reader to draw his own conclusions concerning one of the most significant and controversial figures in the entire history of the United States.

DAYS OF SADNESS, YEARS OF TRIUMPH - Geoffrey Perrett - A comprehensive and colorful portrait that captures the American people as they were during the war years - a nation confronting its last great crises to prove itself to itself.

THE WATER IS WIDE - Pat Conroy. Yamacraw Island lies off the coast of South Carolina, separated from the mainland by a wide tidal river. It is a small island, sparsely populated by a few black families. The two-room school takes the children through the eighth grade and teaches them almost nothing. With the coming of Pat Conroy the mold was broken and for one glorious year, the children tasted the excitement of learning and the joy of success.

THE SALMON - Anthony Netboy. Here is the complete story of the world's most spectacular and valuable family of fishes. It traces the evolution and life history of Pacific and Atlantic salmon, their extraordinary migrations, and their relations with man from the Stone Age to the present.

SHADOWS ON THE GRASS - Isak Dinesen. New stories about Africa by the author of Seven Gothic Tales and Out of Africa.

ESTUARIES: WHERE RIVERS MEET THE SEA - Laurence Pringle. Estuaries are among the most valuable eco systems on earth. In simple, concise text and extraordinary photographs Laurence Pringle explores bays and salt marshes and describes the varieties of plant and animal life found above and below the water line and their complex relationships with each other.

LET 'ER BUCK! - Douglas Kent Hall. In Let 'er Buck! Douglas Kent Hall penetrates the facade and shows the behind-the-scenes action of the completely American sports
