

Steve Ross And Bride Pam Honeymoon At World's Fair

Repeating wedding vows June 15, 1974 at the First Christian Church in Nyssa were Pamela Jean Ellis of Boise and Steven Rey Ross of Nyssa. Officiating at the 10:30 a.m. double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Robert Hutchinson of the United Methodist Church, before an altar decorated with candelabra and baskets of daisies of yellow, lavender, blue and green.

Gary Condon was soloist accompanied by Mrs. Harry McGinley.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ellis of Boise and Dr. and Mrs. Bert Ross of Nyssa.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional white lace-fitted wedding gown with tiers of lace forming a full cathedral length train that was fashioned into a bustle for the reception. The gown featured a sweetheart neckline and long lace sleeves. Her chapel length veil of illusion edged with lace was held to a band. She carried a cascading bouquet of white daisies and yellow roses interspersed with ivy.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Dan Freeman of Montana. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Tim Obenchain, Miss Patty Purdy and Miss Liz Young, all of Boise. The bridal attendants were in empire styled gowns in colors of blue, yellow, green and lavender. They each carried umbrella baskets of daisies.

Flower girl Colleen Schmelzer wore a yellow dress and carried a basket of daisies. Jeff Mitchell ringbearer, sported a yellow shirt and white coat.

Gary Ross of Salem was best man for his brother. Ushering the 180 guests were Ron Moffis, Dave Manley and Chipper Burningham, all of Nyssa.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length gown of pink and mother of the groom chose an apricot colored gown of floor-length. They each wore a glamilia corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church basement. Mrs. Melvin Kleeberger and Mrs. Lorin Mitchell cut and served the cake. Mrs. Arnold Ellis, Nancy Ross and Jeanne Rose were at the punch bowl. Serving coffee were Phyllis Kleeberger and Linda Ellis. Mrs. Margaret Bones and Mrs. Dorothy Schmelzer arranged the gifts.

Immediately following the reception the bride and groom went in full wedding dress to the Malheur Memorial Hospital to see the bride's grandmother, Mrs. E. H. Schmelzer, who had had major surgery and was unable to attend the wedding. The bride was graduated from Boise High School and was employed at Lerner's Shop in Boise. Her husband, a Nyssa High School graduate spent two years in the Sea Bees and plans to attend Boise State University this fall. He is presently employed in the building trade with Don Walker.

For their honeymoon trip to Montana and Expo '74 in Spokane, the new Mrs. Ross changed to a white skirt and jacket with pink top and hat. The couple are making their home in Nyssa.

Out of area guests included Mr. and Mrs. Russell Landry, Scotts, Louisiana; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kleeberger, Dixon, California; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Ellis, Linda and Harmon, Sacramento, California; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schmelzer, Phoenix, Arizona; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schmelzer, Kennewick, Washington and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Mitchell and Clyde A. Schmelzer of Portland.
