SAGE OF NU ACRES

BY LYN DOHNER

Found out how some of these farm wives get their nice complexions. It's the steam bath your face gets twice a day when you wash the milking and straining equipment. It's even helping my skin.

Now that we've a stove on the patio, guess I'll move the typewriter out there. It's so light and inspiring, and when a fire's burning, it smells like camping...there, I did it. I put it on a home-made coffee table I got at an auction for four bucks which we hope to build a mountain cabin around some day.

May as well forget that dream. My George doesn't have time nor inclination for holidays in the hills and farming, and his short pretense at retirement made him all the more in love with his farm. He may concede to selling of forty acres and farming the rest, but that's it!

Seems like, when fall comes and kids go back to school, we can all fold our hands and rest awhile. Taint so. All the gals are involved with canning still, and the men have field work to do. George has that big field of corn to prepare for harvesting. And I just seem to go...go...go.

Not a soul wrote to say he had a spinet piano to trade for my organ. All I want is a little old piano, I've just a small space for it. May be spinet sounds too fancy and high priced.

Needed: Fifty dedicated, loving, joyful soul-winners to attend the Christian Life and Witness course sponsored by the Billy Graham Follow-up department for all of Treasure Valley. It will meet next Sunday, Sept. 22 at the First Baptist Church in Ontario. Those who had the course will be offered a brush-up meeting at that church on the 29th.

The bushel of pears I purchased to can has been eaten down to about two-thirds of a bushel. If I put it off long enough there won't be any to can. I'm not really lazy. It's just that circumstances get in the way. Like a column to write and make the dead-line.

Well, it's my birthday. No one should work too hard on her birthday. George got me a pretty card, a box of candy and a three layer snack bowl he sent away for. I also will get a round lace tablecloth that I've been saving stamps for.

Went with Linda McPartland to a Charismatic meeting at Mary Kay school Friday night, resolved to stay till the end for a change. Got there at seven-thirty and left when it was going on twelve, and I hear they lasted another hour.

Steve Harmon, musician, composer, teacher in a Boise Catholic school was there and, with a guitar, played, sang, and taught some of his own songs to us. Beautiful!

You who dream of Azusa street or the early days of Pentecost, this is where it's at! Everybody comes. Like young fellows in sandals and beards, and ladies in nice slacks suits and girls in blue jeans and a few older folks. I mean, you can tell by how they dress that it's a beautiful, well integrated crowd. One Terry Tarrell was there, a self-styled goat-herd from Payette. He's a story all by himself and I'll get more to tell you about him.

An Episcopalian priest, Paul Tracy, rector of St. James in Payette, highlighted some of the Bible study. John Kirby, recently honored in Outstanding Young Men of American in 1974 was there with his wife, Judy, teaching.

The Nu Acres folks haven't come up with any news this week. Ivan Richardson is getting well enough to drive his car but won't be coming over to milk Dolly for awhile. Mr. George Wilson is down with pneumonia and Mrs. Wilson is farmer as well as housewife and nurse at their house.

The new ditcher hasn't moved in yet as his house is being repainted inside. Farmerette club meets this week at the home of Mrs.
