

Adrian Takes First Win Over Marsing

The Adrian defense stopped Marsing three times inside the Adrian five-yard line in the second half and the Antelopes scored a 12 to 6 victory over Marsing in Treasure Valley League play Friday, October 11.

The final stand came in the dying minutes as Marsing drove to the two-inch line before the Adrian defense took over the ball on downs and the Antelope offense ran out the clock.

Marsing's only score came on an offensive fumble which Marsing linebacker Raymond Roeter fell on for a touchdown in the Adrian end zone.

The passing of Brendan Pratt and running of Larry Thiel punctuated an Adrian offense that rolled up 338 total yards.

Pratt hit 11 of 23 passes for 168 yards while the rushers totaled 270 yards on the ground for a balanced attack. Thiel and Calvin Robinson led the ground attack, each ripping large chunks of yardage.

Tackles Jed Chamberlain and Lee Hill turned in superb games, especially defensively. Scott Orris was also praised.

Louis Asumendi turned in another superb game at linebacker, leading the team in tackles for the second straight week.

Adrian's touchdowns were scored by Thiel on an eight-yard run in the second quarter and a five-yard run by Tom Okai in the third period. Another touchdown on a 35-yard screen pass from Pratt to Robinson was called back.

Basketball Clinic Planned

When a player commits a foul in high school basketball he no longer will be required to raise his hand.

This change and other changes for the 1974-75 season will be discussed at a rules interpretation clinic presented by John Hilse-nteger of the Oregon School Activities Association at Baker Senior High School Tuesday, October 22, according to Dean Knight, commissioner of the North-eastern Oregon Officials Association. Knight said the meeting will get underway at 7:30 p.m.

In addition to the elimination of the requirement of raising a hand after committing a foul, another important change for the upcoming season involves a slackening of restrictions on the movement of non-jumpers around the restraining circle during a jump ball.

A film entitled "Basketball Today" which covers many points in the basketball rules code which is used by the nation's colleges, high schools, junior colleges and grade schools also will be shown at the meeting.

Knight has invited anyone who is interested in the game of basketball to attend the meeting.

Nyssa 8th Rolls Again

Nyssa's eighth grade Bulldogs crushed an overmatched Weiser team 50 to 18 on the Rockets home field October 10.

For half of the first quarter, both teams played on fairly even terms. Nyssa took the opening kickoff and pushed down the field for a touchdown, with Eric Vanetti going over from ten yards out. Mike Johnson passed to Darryl South for the two point conversion, making the score 8 to 0. Weiser promptly replied with a touchdown of their own as Roger Reyes took the opening kickoff and went seventy yards on the ensuing kickoff. The run for two points failed and the Bulldogs led 8 to 6. Nyssa scored two more times in the first period on Jose Delgado's eight yard run and Rey Grijalva's thirty yard reverse. Both passes for extra points failed, and the first quarter ended with Nyssa holding a 20 to 6 edge.

Nyssa continued to run up the tally in the second quarter as Jose Delgado scored his second touchdown of the game on a fifty-five yard burst up the middle. Rey Grijalva's run for the two point conversion was good, and the Bulldog's led 28 to 6. Later in the same period, Delgado broke away again, this time on a forty-five yard scamper, for still another touchdown. The pass for two points after the touchdown was blocked, but Nyssa went in at halftime with a commanding 34 to 6 lead.

Things did not improve in the third period for Weiser. Chuck Stults, the Bulldog's nose guard, recovered a Rocket fumble and carried it into the end zone for another score despite the frantic efforts of four Weiser players to bring him down. Johnson passed to Grijalva for a two point conversion and Nyssa led 42 to 6. The Bulldog's final tally came on a long seventy-one yard run by Eric Vanetti for his second score of the game. Johnson passed to Wahlert for two points and Nyssa led 50 to 6. Weiser scored once in the third and fourth quarters, making the final 50 to 18. Nyssa 20 14 16 0 50 Weiser 6 0 6 6 18

7th Grade Tops Vale 34 - 20

The Nyssa 7th grade football team couldn't get going on offensive or defense and Vale jumped into a 14 to 0 lead Tuesday October 15 on the home field.

Then Efrén Ramirez ran a Vale kickoff back 70 yards for the first Nyssa score. David Dail passed to Kevin Tooley for the extra points and it made the halftime score 14 to 8 with Vale on top.

The Nyssa team came out after half time fired up and determined to maintain their unbeaten record. After holding Vale and blocking the punt Ramirez ran 5 yards for Nyssa's second touchdown and the score was tied at 14 all but Ramirez scored the extra points and Nyssa led 16 to 14 for the first time.

Vale came back on the ensuing kickoff to take the lead 20 to 16.

Later in the third quarter Ramirez scored again on a 50 yard run to make the score 22 to 20.

In the fourth quarter David Dail scored on a quarterback sneak and the PAT attempt failed to make the score 28 to 20. A Ramirez interception of a Vale pass set up the final Nyssa points.

David Dail passed 5 yards to Kevin Tooley to make the final score 34 to 20. This keeps the 7th grade undefeated with a 5 and 0 record. Their last game is October 24 at Emmett.

COW HOLLOW KIDS EARNED ENOUGH money last year to build a ball park and this year they are hoping to buy uniforms. They are pictured posting signs on hunting areas. See related story.

Hunting Fees Benefit Little League Baseball

The Cow Hollow Park and Recreation Association is raising money again this year for the benefit of the Cow Hollow Park program by selling hunting tickets. A $10.00 donation to the Park entitles the hunter to season hunting privileges on some 9,000 acres of choice pheasant hunting lands in the Cow Hollow community.

Hunting tickets and maps of the hunting areas are available at the Sunset Market on Lytle Blvd., at Skinner's Service, Owyhee Corners; and the Nyssa and Ontario Chambers of Commerce. Camping sites are

Bulldogs Beat John Day Prospectors, 38-16

Chris Lords started things off for the Nyssa Bulldogs Thursday night at John Day when he took the opening play from scrimmage, twisted and turned until he broke into the open, then scampered 80 yards for a touchdown. Lords also ran the extra points and Nyssa led 8 to 0 with 11 seconds gone in the first quarter.

Then the Prospectors came back with a quick play and scored on a pass play and the score was tied 8 to 8 and just 37 seconds were gone in the first quarter.

Grant Union came back and scored another touchdown on a pass play on fourth down and they took the lead 16 to 8, but that ended the Grant Union scoring.

The Bulldogs came right back and scored on a 59-yard pass from Prudencio Escobedo to Bill Marcum and then Escobedo bullied his way over for the extra points and the score was tied again at 16 all.

Lords, who finished the night with a fine performance of 134 yards on 14 carries, scored the go-ahead touchdown on a 15-yard run and then added the extra points to give Nyssa a 24 point first quarter score.

The second quarter was a defensive battle with John Day dominating with field position.

The turning point of the game came in the last few minutes of the first half when an 18 yard pass play was nearly intercepted by Bill Marcum putting the ball in scoring position and Grant Union pounded their way to the one yard line, but with a fantastic goal line stand by the Bulldogs the Prospectors were stopped at the one foot line.

The Bulldogs offensive attack unleashed a great passing game of its own as Neal Oldemeyer and Prodcenio Escobedo completed 8 of 17 passes for 168 yards with Bill Marcum doing the

Adrian Girl's Hockey

The Adrian Girls Hockey team traveled to Caldwell High School and played a game of hockey, Thursday, October 10.

The game was played on a muddy field but was very exciting anyway.

Caldwell made their score in the first-half and Adrian did not make theirs until the second-half. The teams battled til the finish but the
