SAGE OF NU ACRES

Mrs. Frank Johnson is out of the hospital again and hopefully mending from a broken hip. She said that whenever they start planning a trip she takes a tumble and lands back in the hospital instead. There is a certain missionary-evangelist in Korea whose career has deeply interested the Johnsons and they have corresponded with him for years. They'd hoped to meet him at last, for he was to hold meetings in a distant state. But the trip was postponed due to a fall and a stay in Caldwell Memorial Hospital.

Remember neighbors, the lovely peaches and other fruit we used to buy from Mr. Johnson? He'd bring them in by the pickup load and sell them there in front of his house by the highway. And George tells me he is the one who put the roof on the machine shed. Out here our lives get all tangled up with one another, somehow. And they stay tied up, even when there are no peaches, no need of a carpenter....

Susan Inouye, Payette County Home Extension economist, met with the Farmerette Club recently at the home of Mrs. Paul Russell and shared her experiments and findings on convenience mixes.

Shake and Bake, seasoning mixes, cake and biscuit mixes and others, had all been tested, their home and store costs computerized and Susan demonstrated her results and gave the women recipes so they could try these in their own kitchens. Results: the ones you buy save time and only cost a little more, however, some may prefer the quality of the home assembled product.

Cecil Evans is trying to stay retired but he has received some tempting job offers. Hang in there Cecil. You don't have to go to work. Got enough to do at home! Hey, his fireplace turned out real nice, adds real warmth to their living room even without a fire. Its Early American, used brick with a seat across the front.

Love what the energy crisis is doing to homes in the valley. Like the Paul Russells have remodeled with paneling and a beautiful fireplace. And the Russell Leiningers have an old iron range they are working over to install someplace in the home they're planning to build, soon.

Janice Evans is expecting a soon visit by her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Ross, who are currently visiting in Texas. Palmer Ross is the man who drew up the plans for our house and whose company did much of the building. He's retired now, as is the man who built our fireplace. And Frank Johnson who roofed the equipment shed. And our carpenter Si Lett.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvin Kersey and their friends and relatives had a party at the Community Hall Saturday night just for fun. At the time the party was planned, the Kerseys did not know two of their sons would be bringing home new brides and there would be a joyful reason to celebrate.

Steve Kersey married Tammy Wilson of Tacoma, Washington. Steve is recently discharged from the Army and plans to commence attending college in the spring. Tom Kersey has married Alana Wilbur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Wilbur of Ontario. The four newlyweds were at the party for a grand introduction. Friends from her childhood on Pleasant Ridge visited Mrs. Cecil Evans and her husband recently. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Goodwin of New Plymouth and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Moss of Cookson, Washington were the visitors and Margaret said they knew her folks before she was born. Cecil Evans as a lay-minister in the Methodist church, preached at Huntington last Sunday night and this Sunday in Jordan Valley. Visiting recently with Mr. and Mrs. Dave Weaver were her aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hamlow of Waverly, Nebraska and Mr. and Mrs. Don Hamlow, of Lincoln, Nebraska.

Make It Yourself With Wool Competition Nov. 16

The district 12 competition for the annual Make It Yourself With Wool Contest will be held in Vale on November 16 with the fashion show and refreshments beginning at 2 p.m. at the LDS Church. Registration time for entrants is 9 a.m. on the 16th. Entries are due the week of October 21. The purpose of Make It Yourself With Wool is: to focus attention on the beauty and versatility of American Wool; to encourage use of this incomparable fabric or yarn in sewing or knitting fashionable garments; and to offer young experts the opportunity to compete for valuable prizes and win recognition for their sewing or knitting skills.

All entries must be made for American yarn or American loomed, knitted or felted wool. The fabric or yarn must be at least 70% wool. The competition, which is both a sewing or knitting and fashion competition is open to all American citizens regardless of race, color or creed who meet the age and other requirements as set forth for the competition. There are three categories for the District Competition: Pre-teens, ages 10-13; Juniors ages 14-16; and Seniors ages 17-21. Only the Junior and Senior categories are eligible for state and national competition, with the category entered depending upon the entrant's age before January 1, 1975. Entry forms and further information are available in the County Extension Office, Home Economics Teachers, or by contacting Chris Moore District 12 Director, Vale - 889-6083.

Worthy Patron, Foy Sasser presided for good of the order. Vera Webb reported she attended Hermosa Chapter at Caldwell where her daughter was initiated. Louise Wernick reported on her visit to Star Chapter. Next meeting will be November 4 at the Masonic Hall at 8 p.m.

CANDY STRIPER MARTINA DE LEON was recently presented her 200 hour pin by Mrs. Dick Tensen, advisor. Martina is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jose P. DeLeon of Nyssa and a junior at Nyssa High School.

Candy Stripers begin training by working in the nursing home and after 50 hours duty, the girls may transfer to the hospital. They fold linens, take patients to and from the dining room in the nursing home and help feed those unable to feed themselves. The girls are generally helpful to patients in both the nursing home and hospital.
