Martinez 6th In CC Meet

Cruz Martinez established himself as one of the best distance runners in Oregon track at the recent Cross Country Meet in Eugene. Running on a soggy course Cruz finished sixth for the highest place ever by a Nyssa runner.

CRUZ MARTINEZ

Pacing himself near the front of the pack of approximately 125 runners Cruz established himself as a potential place winner. He maintained positions in the top ten for almost the entire race. With 330 yards to go, and in 10th place Cruz burst past three runners to place 6th in 12:26.

Considering the competition in this race Cruz has to be considered as a major threat to be a state champion in the spring. Lanny Wilbur, Madras, who was 2nd in the 880 yd. last spring and who won the district was 26th. Gordy Byers of Philomoth has won the 2 mile 3 times, finished 2nd only 17 seconds ahead of Cruz.

Reedsport was this years champion with 86 points. Their best man finished 18th Crook County was 4th with 111 getting nosed out of 3rd place and a trophy by one point.

Congratulations Cruz on a job Well Done.

Nyssa FFA Member Wins P.I. Steer

Mike Parker of the Nyssa Future Farmers of America Chapter was fortunate enough to catch a steer in the calf scramble at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition at Portland, November 15 during the rodeo and horse show. Mike will feed the steer for one year, then take it back to the P.I. and show him against 20 other calves won. The Portland Kiwanis Club sponsored the calves for the contest.

Also traveling to Portland and participating in the Oregon Charolais field day and judging contest on Friday, November 15 and the P.I. Livestock judging contest Saturday, November 16 were Leslie Lineger, Raymond Wiley, Jerry Robbins, Tim Meigham, Renae Simpson, Barbara Holmes and Mike Parker.

Both contests were well attended with over 114 teams competing from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and California. Both were won by Canby, Oregon.

Twelve Nyssa Players On All-Star Team

Twelve members of the winning Nyssa football team were named to the All-star team of the Greater Oregon League. These members are picked by the league coaches. Several of the players were named on both the offensive and defensive teams.

First team nominees were Ted Joyce, linebacker and Bill Marcum, defensive halfback.

Second team players named to the offensive team were Bill Marcum split end; Chris Lords, halfback; Prudencio Escobedo, fullback; Ted Joyce, tackle; and Robert Gallegos, guard. Named to the defensive team were Kevin Adams, linebacker; Brad Holcomb, defensive end; and Robert Gallegos, interior lineman.

Honorable Mention was given to Kevin Adams, halfback; David Mitchell, tackle; and Cliff Vanetti, tight end on the offensive team. On defense, Dirk Sappe, interior lineman; Chris Lords, linebacker; Louie Mosquedo, defensive halfback; and Roy Mosquedo defensive halfback were named.

Coach Art Bullock, in recapping his winning 6-3 season, said that "We started slowly and continued to improve during the season right up to the last game. As coaches, that is something we are always looking for; continued improvement. These ball players were never "out" of any game this year, and the team effort and closeness speaks for the tenacity of these boys. No coach could ask for more than these young men gave of themselves, this year. Summing up, that could be called success."
