Calhoun Tells of Strong Nyssa Wrestling Squad

Wrestling coach Mel Calhoun told the Nyssa Lions Club about prospects for Nyssa High School wrestlers at the regular meeting Tuesday noon at the Twilight Cafe.

Calhoun said that the wrestlers will open the season at Ontario Saturday at the Takedown Tournament, Tuesday, Dec. 10 part of his squad will wrestle at Weiser, the balance will wrestle Parma at TVCC, which will be the scene of all home matches. Dec. 13 and 14 will be the annual Nyssa Invitational, one of the strongest tournaments of the year.

They will have home matches with Homedale and Caldwell Dec. 17, and will close out the pre-season matches with Pine Eagle Dec. 19.

Calhoun said that he will have a veteran squad, with the leading contenders as follows:

- 98 pounds, Kirt Moore; 106 pounds, Sam Hartley; 115 pounds, David Simantel, Clark Kido, Bill Tensen and Paul Kesler; 123 pounds, Dan Simantel; 130 pounds, David Ballou and Jim McCune; 136 pounds, Dion Garner; 141 pounds, Brad Holcomb, Scott Holcomb, Bill Calhoun and John Tanner; 148 pounds, Chris Lords; 157 pounds, Robert Gallegos; 168 pounds, Kevin Adams; 178 pounds, Rawleigh Perez; 191 pounds, David Mitchell; and Heavyweight, Robert Fehlman.
- Calhoun also said that he had many strong freshmen who will challenge some of his regulars before the season is over. He said that the program is very strenuous this year, as practices are at TVCC, which entails long hours and considerable travel.
