Throughout the United States, educators recognize the annual Bausch & Lomb Honorary Science Award as evidence of superior scientific aptitude.

In announcing Owen Beret as the 1965 winner, Principal Gene Chester of Nyssa High School said, "These awards are especially significant. Today everyone realizes the importance of the study of science in our secondary schools. Bausch and Lomb provides recognition to senior students with the highest scholastic standing in science subjects."

20 YEARS AGO

Tentative plans were made Tuesday by the Nyssa City Council to sign contracts for a complete, new water system and the Ranney Method Western Corporation of Sacramento, California was engaged to start immediately on preliminary work for a source of supply that will guarantee a minimum of 3,000,000 gallons of water a day.

City Manager Robert Applegate said that Reynold's firm is now preparing a report which will include the means of presenting a bond issue to Nyssa voters, additions and improvements to existing water lines and total costs.

Airman 2nd Class Bill Lesberg is now visiting his parents and friends, on a 16-day leave from Lowery Air Force Base at Denver, Colorado. Airman Lesberg is enroute from Lowery AFB to Ellis Air Force Base at Fairbanks, Alaska.

30 YEARS AGO

Major Lloyd Wilson of Nyssa has notified his parents Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilson, that his unit, the 21st Statistical Control Unit of the Eighth Air Force in England, has been awarded the Meritorious Service Unit Plaque by General James Doolittle.

The citation is equivalent to the Distinguished Service Citation awarded to Combat Units, except that Wilson's outfit is a Service Unit. Major Wilson, who has been overseas for almost two years, is second in command of the unit.

Carlos Buchner of Nyssa has purchased Wray's Dime Store from Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Wray, who have operated the business for several years.

Buchner is manager and part owner of the Golden Rule Store.

Lloyd Marshall, owner of the Polar Cold Storage and locker plant was elected president of the Owyhee Riding club of Nyssa at a meeting held Sunday.

Other officers are Mrs. Lynn Snodgrass, secretary-treasurer; Neil Dimmick, drill master; Zack Walker, rodeo manager; Mrs. Neil Dimmick, refreshments chairman; Mrs. Marie Holmes, assistant program chairman; Mrs. D. O. Bybee, reporter-photographer.

40 YEARS AGO

Mayor Don Graham has appointed a planning board for Nyssa, who will work with the city council and commercial club in helping to make Nyssa a better place in which to live. The personnel of the board was announced Tuesday night as W. B. Hoxie, Dr. J. J. Sarazin, C. M. Caldwell, Arthur Boydell, Ernest Wilson, C. L. McCoy and Sid Burbridge.

The duties of this board will consist of planning ways and means for improving the city. Interested citizens are asked to appear before the meeting board. It is believed that by this method there will be considerable action this summer in making improvements needed in Nyssa.

Interest in the new project is increasing at a rapid rate. Letters have been pouring into the office of Frank Morgan at an increasing pace until now from 1,500 to 2,000 inquiries are received each month from people interested in settling the new land. It seems that there are a great many farmers who are interested in the splendid soil, climate and water rights of the Nyssa section and many are making an effort to get in on the "ground floor."
