

Toni Shenk-Terry Case United In Candlelight Ceremony

Toni Shenk became the bride of Terry Case in a candlelight service at the Presbyterian Church in Homedale, November 29, 1974 with the Reverend David Turnmire officiating.

The church was decorated with baskets of chrysanthemums, ferns and ribbons in Autumn colors.

Vocalists were Marla and Marva Case, sisters of the bridegroom, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Melda Schiemer, Adrian, Merle Jenkins of Parma also sang.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shenk of Adrian and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Case, also of Adrian.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a princess style gown of satin with lace overlay on the bodice and extending to the train. Her elbow-length veil of illusion was held to a tiara of pearls and lace roses. She carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums, roses and straw flowers.

Maid of honor was Terri Morinaka, Adrian. Bridesmaids were Jane Gorley, cousin of the bride and Robin and Louisa Shenk, sisters of the bride. All attendants were attired in princess style gowns in Autumn colors, fashioned with long sleeves and scoop necklines. They each carried a single bronze chrysanthemum.

Best man was Mark Osborn. Ushering the guests were Dan Chapin, David Smith, and Monte Fugishin, all of Adrian.

A reception followed at the church and assisting with the serving were Julie Ishida, Amy Huffman and Rita Fenn, all of Adrian.

Shana and Sharla Roebuck, cousins of the bridegroom received the gifts. Mrs. Vikkie Price, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Christy Willhite, aunt of the bride, arranged the flowers.

Ada Mackenzie, cousin of the bride, and Paul Shenk, brother of the bride, presented the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of the Adrian High School and is now employed at Cal-Gas in Homedale. Her husband, also a graduate of Adrian High School, works at Jenkins Dairy in Parma.

Following a wedding trip to Nevada, the couple is at home in Homedale.
