

Blue and Pink Theme of Campbell-Holmes Rites

Spiral candelabra with blue candles, pink and blue tipped carnations and baby's breath and blue pew bows decorated the United Methodist Church in Nyssa for the 2:30 p.m. wedding of Connie Campbell to Bob Holmes on Saturday, January 25, 1975. The Rev. Raymond Wilson of the Adrian-Presbyterian Church and the Reverend Robert Hutchinson of the Methodist Church, Nyssa, officiated at the double-ring ceremony, in the presence of 270 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Campbell of Adrian and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Holmes of Nyssa.

Danny Cutler and Mary Looney were soloists, accompanied by Mrs. George (Melba) Schiemer.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of winter white satin. The gown was styled with long-fitted sleeves and the skirt gathered in back to form a chapel train. The neckline, bodice, sleeves and skirt were enhanced with appliques of antique lace flowers. Her veil of illusion was held to a Juliet cap of antique lace and pearls. She carried a cascading bouquet of pink and blue tipped carnations and white roses interspersed with baby's breath.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Danny Cutler of Adrian and bridesmaids were Mrs. Ron (Rita) McCain of Nyssa, Mrs. Bruce (Lynne) Campbell of Adrian and Barbara Holmes of Nyssa. Lee Ann Slippery of La Grande, was junior bridesmaid. All the bridal attendants wore floor-length gowns of blue velvet, styled with bell sleeves and accented with white pearls.

Flower girls Sheri McCain and Erika Campbell were attired in blue velvet dresses and they carried baskets of rose petals.

Bill Holmes of Nyssa served as bestman for his brother. Ushers were Bruce Campbell, Danny Cutler, Eldon Slippery and Brent Richeson. Jason McCain was junior usher.

For her daughters wedding the bride's mother chose a coral floor-length gown with sheer overjacket. Mother of the groom wore a pink floor-length gown. Their corsages were white roses accented with greenery.

A reception in the church social hall followed the ceremony. The four-tiered wedding cake was decorated with a blue border, pink roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Four heart-shaped cakes, centered with miniature bridesmaids in blue gowns, also graced the reception table.

Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Don Cone, Mrs. Noel Tallich, Mrs. Tom Martin and Mrs. Finley Shuster, all aunts of the couple.
