Town And Country Garden Club

The Town and Country Garden Club met Thursday, February 13 at the home of Margaret Sage with Myrtle Sasser co-hostess. Refreshments were served to eleven members and one visitor.

Following the business meeting presided over by the president, Mae Schireman, a lesson on the theme, "Green Under Glass" was given by Armene Hartman. She gave a very interesting demonstration on the making of a terrarium.

A committee with Dorothy Nolen as chairman reported that they had taken copies of Teachers' Curriculum Guide to Conservation Education, to the school libraries. These guides are based on a study of People and Their Environment. This is a project of the National Council of State Garden Clubs, Inc., which is carrying out the program through local member clubs.

Copies of the guides applicable to the various grade levels were presented to the Primary, Elementary, Junior High and High School libraries. Guides for Biology and Home Economics were also placed in the High School and one called Outdoor Laboratory covers grades one through twelve.

These books will aid the teachers to help the child become more aware of his surroundings and how he can become personally involved.

Our club is most happy to provide the guides for the libraries as part of this national project.

Next meeting will be March 13 at the home of Fern Adams.

REBEKAHS MEET

Yellow Rose Rebekah Lodge #202 met Tuesday, February 11 at the IOOF Hall. Noble Grand, Emily Clapp presided with twenty-one members present.

It was reported that thirty-six members and friends attended the birthday party for Nellie Newbill.

Good of Order chairman Kathleen Wheeler had Emily Clapp escorted to the alter and with lovely verses, presented her a vase of roses from the lodge, with promises of all our help for her year to come.

Anna Marostica, junior past noble grand, was escorted and an addendum with fourteen members assisting, formed the words, Past Noble Grand, each letter pertaining to a verse for that letter. She was then presented a plate with the names of all her officers from the lodge.

The Charter was draped for Ralph Paull, past Grand Master and Grand Secretary, who passed away recently. Hostesses were Helen Pittz and Leona Reeves. The next meeting will be Tuesday, February 25 at 7 p.m.
