in religion. In almost every home one finds a crucifix. Many of the Belgians speak French. Toombs said the boys study French every night with the Belgians helping them.

40 YEARS AGO

Nyssa will again celebrate the Owyhee Canyon Days this year and the dates have been set for Friday and Saturday, May 10 and 11. Interest is already picking up in the affair and it won't be very many weeks before the people of Nyssa will don red shirts and fantastic bearded designs, the traditional pre-show advertising stunt.

A supply of tickbite serum has been received by Dr. J.J. Sarazin and is rapidly being used up. It is given in two shots, five days apart, and those going into tick country have found it wise to take these precautions. Many sheep men, reclamation workers and sportsmen have been treated the past week in Nyssa.

ISSUES FOR 50 and 60 YEARS AGO ARE MISSING FROM OUR FILES.
