SAGE OF NU ACRES

BY LYN DOHNER

"The Young sow wild oats; the Old grow sage," said Winston Churchill. But how come even my sage tends to turn into a weed patch!

The neighbor's cows have been coming over regularly to glean in our fields. Well, like I told George, organic fertilizer is all the rage now, so let them stay and contribute as they will.

George Wilson phoned to say his wife had been arrested and would I write it for the paper. Sounded real shocking until he said she had merely been stopped and given a ticket for not having an updated car-inspection sticker! Thanks, George. We'll all check ours out lest we be caught in like manner.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Payne were Mr. and Mrs. Syl Woodland of Arena Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cook of Blackfoot and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Peacock of Payette.

The ladies of the Ontario Methodist church invited their counterparts from Nyssa, Payette, Vale, Fruitland and other for dinner Thursday night and entertained us royally with an elegant meal and a program in the sanctuary afterward.

Eight of us went from the Nyssa church and had a marvelous time. Three received gifts of table decorations.

Recent visitors for coffee and a chat with Mrs. James Hartman were Mrs. Hazel Pounds, Nyssa; Mrs. Forrest Carpenter of Nu Acres; Mrs. Dianna Hull of Apple Valley; and Carl attended the plays at Adrian High School Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lovitt entertained with a family dinner Sunday honoring the birthdays of Wynn Lovitt, Mary Hodge and Brent Lovitt. 1975 Cancer Crusade

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Grasty of Ontario have been named co-chairmen of the Malheur County American Cancer Society's 1975 educational and fund-raising Crusade in April when the theme will be: "We Want to Wipe Out Cancer in Your Lifetime."

The Grastys will lead local volunteers in a community-wide effort to help teach families how to protect themselves against cancer. Our volunteers will ask for sup-

Others manage little trips without such drastic measures. How do their wives do it? Perhaps in the way of the old South, I could plant a full-grown hint and water it with a gentle reminder.

Did you hear the one about the four bull calves who were rapping about what they planned for the future. The first said, "I want to go to Spain and be in the bull fights." The next said, "I want to go to the big city and be a bull in a China shop." The next said, "Oh, I'd rather go to New York and be in the stock market." But the last said, "I don't want to go anywhere. I'll just stay here in my pasture for-heifer and for-heifer!"

About the stock market, my friend learned that the bulls and bears aren't as responsible for losses as was that Bum Steer.

port of the Society's vital programs on behalf of research, public and professional education and service to the cancer patient.

"The promise of research is so great," the new Crusade chairmen said, "that the 1975 Crusade will be one of the most important ever. The dedicated people in the laboratories, the men, women and children suffering from cancer today, and our hopes for the future all depend on our willingness to support the cancer fight."

Under their leadership approximately 500 volunteers will visit friends and neighbors and businesses in Malheur County. They will distribute this year's Crusade leaflet, a cancer quiz, testing the public's awareness of ways to protect themselves against cancer.

"Our local volunteers are part of an army of 2,300,000 American Cancer Society volunteers mobilized for the 1975 Crusade. This is probably one of the greatest volunteer forces in history," Mrs. Grasty said. "We want to take cancer out of the medical books and put it into the history books as something that afflicted people a long time ago!"

Collectors are now starting to canvass the businesses in Nyssa, Vale and Ontario and this will continue through the month of March. Coordinating the Crusade effort for the three towns are the fourteen offices of the Malheur County Board of Realtors headed by Earl S. Blackaby and Paul Parker.

Anyone in the area wishing to volunteer help is asked to call Mrs. Grasty at 889-5256.
