Dennis Fife telephoned his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Fife, Saturday from Amarillo, Texas that "I made a high enough score to make the B29s." Due to an accident to his hand last summer, it fails to function in coordination tests, which would have passed him on a pilot's test. He will now be instructed in tail-gunnery.

40 YEARS AGO

The basement of the Eagles Hall was taxed to capacity Friday night when 146 business men and new comers sat down to a banquet served by the ladies of the Civic Club. Every available seat was taken and several were forced to wait until later, so big was the crowd. Several were heard to say it was the biggest crowd to assemble in the Eagles Hall for such an event. The occasion was the "Friendship dinner" given by the Commercial Club honoring the new people who have come to make their homes among us.

The male population of Nyssa is expected to go into hiding behind an ambush of facial adornment for the next five weeks in preparation for the annual Owyhee Canyon celebration. It is expected that within ten days not a man in town will be recognizable except by the size of his feet or the area of his bald spot. If anyone fails to grow a beard it will be assumed that he is unable to do so.
