Sage of Nu Acres

By Leo Bohner

How do you entertain your California guests? We do have our West Park Plaza, of which we are justly proud. However, Southern Californians have their shopping malls, all beautifully planned, blooming with trees and flower beds, with splashing fountains, escalators, and carpeted children's play areas. Our Plaza would seem pretty tame to them.

But they don't have a Hell's Canyon, our McCall lakes and Cascade reservoir, our rushing mountain rivers, and "The Hills, the hills of Idaho," so beautiful. And near here is the charming, primitive Fort Boise. Guess we'll start there. For my two eldest sisters, Dorothy and Naomi have come to visit.

Saturday night Mrs. Joseph King of El Monte and Mrs. John Wahlstrom of Los Angeles, Calif. arrived by plane for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Dohner.

We were among the early birds who went to the Nyssa Cemetery for Easter sunrise services, a lovely way to begin the day.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Laymen Sheffield over Easter weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Marine and their daughter Barbie and family. The Marines are from the same area in Napa Valley, Calif., as the Sheffields and Mr. Marine used to work for Laymen. They moved to Emmett a year ago but are now returning to Napa Valley, due to Mrs. Marine's father's ill health.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Keck recently took a trip to Madras in order to visit their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pugh. Mrs. Pugh is the former Kathy Keck. While they were there they also visited Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baxter.

The back yard wiener roast, the first of the season, was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Evans. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Russell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Stepps and family, Miss Janice Evans, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ziegler and family.
